Parade, Talk Set

Memorial Rites Awaited Monday

Donald L. Gruenbaum of Marysville, past commander of the Ohio American Legion, will give the principal address during the Memorial Day program here Monday sponsored by the Veterans City Council.

The observance will get under way on the steps of City Hall about 15 minutes after the parade disbands. The parade will begin at 11 a.m.

In event of rain, the program will be held in the Elks ball room on W. 5th St.

GRUENBAUM, who is a research technician with O. M. Scott & Sons Co. of Marysville, served with the Marines in the Pacific theater during World War II. He was commander of year term that ended in July

Gold Star mother, Mrs. Anna Osborn, assisted by Mrs. Mary Wines of the local Navy Mothers, and Ohio state chaplain of the Navy Mothers movement, place the memorial wreath in front of the War Memorial. The parade will then continue on to Walnut St., where it will disband.

Mayor George Willshaw will serve as master of ceremonies during the services in front of City Hall, which will begin with the East Liverpool High School Band, under the direction of Vincent Maola Jr., playing the "Star Spangled Banner."

Fr. William Lawler of St. Aloysius Catholic Church will give the invocation and Rabbi Sidney Hoffman of the Congregation Beth Shalom the benediction.

Chuckie Dyke, commander of the Sons of American Legion Post 374, will lead the Pledge of Allegiance; Karl Oyster, East Liverpool High School student, will give the Gettysburg Address; two vocal solos will be sung by Ernest Lowe, president of City Council, and "Taps" will be played by Gary Martin and Ron Givens, East Liverpool High School students. The massing of flags and colors will be featured at the beginning of the program by color guards and Boy Scouts. Programs will be distributed by the East Liverpool Area Camp Fire Girls.

Shapp OK's Debate Offer From Shafer

Challenge Accepted For Airing Issues In Vote Campaign

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Democrat Milton Shapp has accepted Republican Raymond Shafer's challenge to debate issues during their campaigns for the governorship of Pennsylvania.

Shafer, the lieutenant governor, issued the challenge during the opening session of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association's summer press conference at Pennsylvania State University Friday.

Shapp, 53, a Philadelphia industrialist, promptly accepted, adding that he would have suggested the debates himself had he been first to speak.

No terms or conditions of the proposed debates were settled. However, in issuing the challenge, Shafer said they would start as soon as possible "to let the people decide who has the best program."

The two candidates took part in a panel discussion with three Capitol Hill correspondents from Harrisburg.

Shafer told the panelists that the state had made progress in all fields during the 3½ years of the Scranton administration. Shapp stressed the theme that a businessman like himself was needed, rather than politicians, to get what he termed "Pennsylvania moving again."

During the question period, Shapp said that he felt entitled to make the nomination for the state Democratic chairmanship and assumed that the state committee would be guided by his recommendations when it meets to make the selection. He added that he had opposed the selection of chairman John Rice when he was named last September.

Shafer replied that he thought Republican state chairman Craig Truax was a "dynamic, intelligent and competent leader."

The candidates differed sharply on their views of the merger of the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads.

Shapp insisted that the merger, recently approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission, would be a bad thing for the state's economy.

Shafer was just as firm in his conviction that it would create more jobs and be good for economic expansion.

Attack Hits Viet Cong In Coastal Site

Joint Landing Made By U.S. Marines, South Viet Forces

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A combined force of 1,500 American Marines and South Vietnamese troops launched an amphibious and helicopter assault against the Viet Cong near the northern coastal city of Quang Ngai, the U.S. command announced today.

A spokesman said the joint force had met little resistance in the coastal sweep, a three-pronged assault 15 miles north of Quang Ngai and 235 miles northeast of Saigon.

The U.S. command at first announced the operation was an all-Marine show but later corrected this to say that it was a mixed three-battalion force of Marines and South Vietnamese troops.

The continuing assault was launched Wednesday, and reports indicated allied troops initially had failed to flush out many Viet Cong. They reported killing 15 of the enemy and capturing 20 suspects in the first four days.

Also in Quang Ngai Province, not far from the Marine assault, today at two suspected Viet Cong troop concentration areas. The targets were 30 miles northwest of Quang Ngai city.

In other war developments: —A reinforced Viet Cong platoon attacked a unit of the U.S. 1st Cavalry's Airmobile division Friday night but was driven off in a 30-minute fight after the cavalrymen called in artillery and illuminated the area with flares from planes. This action took place in the area of Operation Crazy Horse 20 miles north of An Khe and 265 miles northeast of Saigon.

Other units of the cavalry division uncovered a Viet Cong cache Friday containing 42 re-

U.S. Troops Will Remain, Europe Told

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk has ruled out any major withdrawal of U.S. troops from Germany. He said European allies have been assured "our forces will remain there as long as they are needed and wanted."

Rusk also told a news conference Friday he hopes members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization can reach firm decisions soon on plans for removing NATO's military headquarters and bases from France.

He said ways to improve East-West relations will be discussed extensively when he and other allied foreign ministers gather in Brussels June 6 for a NATO Council meeting.

His comments came as an allied move was reported under way in Europe to respond to Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko's call for a Pan-European security conference.

Denmark plans to broach the idea at the Brussels meeting. Qualified diplomats in London said the United States and various other allied countries reacted cautiously but not adversely when notified of the Danish intention.

Pentagon Reverses Larsen

General's Contradicted Over Reds In Cambodia

WASHINGTON (AP) — Resentful military officers said today the Pentagon jerked the rug from under Army Maj. Gen. Stanley R. Larsen in publicly contradicting his statement that up to six North Vietnamese regiments are massed in Cambodia.

But Larsen, a top field commander on leave from South Viet Nam, said "I am just a soldier" and accepted the rebuff.

"I stand corrected," the two-star general told a reporter. "I'm not going to question my superiors about what they say. The Defense Department has a lot more information to go on than I have."

But in Saigon, intelligence reports available to military commanders supported Larsen's statement. Some reports indicate as many as 12,000 North Vietnamese are massed in the Cambodian mountains.

Saigon sources say two of the six regiments poised in the Chu Phong Mountains are the 32nd and 33rd of the North Vietnamese 325th Division. Both regiments fought in a big battle last November in the Ia Drang Valley across the border from where the North Vietnamese reportedly now are gathered.

The reports also indicate the North Vietnamese plan to move into South Viet Nam in early fall after the rainy season passes its mid-summer peak.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said later in answer to newsmen's questions that he knew nothing about Larsen's report.

But Rusk said Communist forces have been abusing Cambodia's neutrality. He added that the United States favors international action to secure that Southeast Asian country's neutrality and territorial integrity.

On other matters relating to Viet Nam, Rusk said:

—The political upheaval has had very little effect on military operations against the Communists apart from the region around Da Nang and Hue, center of the break between the Buddhists and the Saigon regime.

—U.S. pilots "have instructions not to intrude" into Red China's airspace. The secretary of state said pilots involved in a recent incident claimed they had not violated Chinese airspace. But Rusk said he thought there had been an instance in which a navigation error had resulted in an intrusion.

The flap over Larsen's remarks developed after the general appeared at a Pentagon news conference.

In reviewing military operations, Larsen pointed on a map to an area of Cambodia just across the border from one of the most fought-over sections of South Viet Nam's central highlands.

This would represent 10,000 or more Communist troops in position to strike at South Viet Nam's midsection.

But about five hours later, the Defense Department issued a statement which flatly disputed Larsen.

"While there have been unconfirmed reports for months of North Vietnamese activity in Cambodia, there exists no evidence strong enough for the commander of the U.S. Military Assistance Command Viet Nam to validate the presence of any North Vietnamese regiment in Cambodia at this time," the statement said.

Area Woman Hurt As Cars Ram Head-On

Industry Resident Hospitalized After Ohioville Accident

An industry woman was reported in "satisfactory" condition today at Rochester General Hospital after suffering injuries in a head-on collision on the Lisbon Rd. in Ohioville Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Zona Kirkpatrick, a passenger in an auto driven by her husband, Lawrence Kirkpatrick, suffered lacerations of the right eyebrow, chin and lower lip and abrasions of the face.

The accident occurred at 4:15 when an auto driven by Michael Rainey of 355 Wilson Ave., Beaver, rounded a curve, crossed the center line and struck the Kirkpatrick car head-on, officers said.

Kirkpatrick was treated and released for suffering abrasions of the nose and left knee and contusions of the chest and left arm.

Rainey was not injured. Ohioville police also reported a one-car mishap early this morning on Tuscarawas Rd. in Fairview.

The accident happened shortly after midnight when a car operated by John B. Shearer of Highland Dr., Industry, veered out of control and struck a utility pole.

Shearer was not injured. Police are investigating.

Fidel Cites Clashes At Naval Base

Dorticos Requests Communist Nations To Send Volunteers

HAVANA (AP) — Prime minister Fidel Castro said Friday night he is convinced the United States is planning "armed aggression" against Cuba and ordered a state of alert for Cuba's 100,000-man armed forces.

In a communique read over radio and television, Castro accused Secretary of State Dean Rusk of "practically threatening us with war" over armed clashes between U.S. and Cuban forces along the perimeter of the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo in southeastern Cuba.

President Osvaldo Dorticos immediately called in the ambassadors of Communist countries and asked for volunteers "willing to aid Cuba against the threat of aggression by Yankee imperialism."

The ambassadors present included those of Communist China, the Soviet Union and North Viet Nam and the representative of the Viet Cong guerrillas in South Viet Nam. There was no report on the response to Dorticos' request.

Castro said the U.S. Defense Department lied in claiming that six Cuban soldiers penetrated the U.S. base Monday and exchanged fire with American guards.

Rusk told a news conference Friday the United States had protested the incident and demanded that such actions stop. A Defense Department spokesman said as far as is known no one was injured in the exchange of gunfire.

Castro said the Pentagon version "does not contain the slightest element of truth" and likened it to lies which he said "always precede the aggression of Yankee imperialists."

He denounced the "chiefs of Pentagon" as "a gang of reactionaries, bandits, criminals without scruples and cowards."

"Maybe by such improbable and false declarations they are trying to create psychological conditions to unleash an aggression against our country," he said.

Cuba will never "abandon custody of our territory, which is virtually what Rusk is demanding," Castro said. Instead, "What we will do immediately is put our revolutionary armed forces and all the people of Cuba in a state of alert."

He said the United States should not even bother to send a diplomatic note on such allegations because it would not be accepted.

"We have often said we do not want a war. But we are not ostriches in believing that imperialist aggression can be stopped by sentimental exhortations to reason, right and peace," Castro said.

The prime minister also reiterated Cuban claims that U.S. forces at Guantanamo had shot to death a Cuban sentry last Saturday night while he was on guard on Cuban soil.

The Defense Department has said the Cuban was shot after he entered the base and failed to obey a command to halt.

Trucker Due Hearing After Area Accident

A West Virginia trucker was cited following an accident Friday at 8 a. m. on Route 7 at Beaver Local School, according to the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Officers said the mishap involved a pickup truck operated by Harry Ralph Matheny, 17, of Lisbon R. D. 2 and a tractor-trailer rig driven by Michael A. Stillson, 30, of Colliers, W. Va., R. D. 1.

Matheny stopped to make a left turn into the school and Stillson, unable to stop, served off the road, brushed the right rear bumper of the pickup and then went into a ditch, officers said.

Stillson was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Low Reports Steps For Obtaining Flags

Steps which families may follow if a veteran's grave is overlooked accidentally by a committee placing American flags at Riverview Cemetery were listed today by Ernest A. Lowe, chairman of the committee representing American Legion Post 4.

Despite the committee's care, some graves inadvertently are overlooked, Lowe said. In such a case, flags are available free of charge at the cemetery superintendent's office and may be placed on the grave by the individual, Lowe said.

The flag also will be put in place if a member of the veteran's family calls the Post 4 home or Lowe, reporting the name and the location of the grave, he added. In such instances, the post will correct its records and maps to assure the grave will not be overlooked on future Memorial Days, Lowe said.

Chapter Of DAR Hears Talk On 'Britain's Royal Family'

Mrs. Edwin Pugh presented the program on "Britain's Royal Family" when Bethia Southwick Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Isabel Hart of 710 Aten Ave., Wellsville.

Mrs. Pugh gave a talk and screened slides of England and Scotland taken when her husband was studying in Edinburgh the summer of 1965.

A slate of officers reported by Mrs. Carolyn Vogel of the nominating committee was approved and installed by Mrs. Vogel. They are: Mrs. Hart, regent; Mrs. Clarence G. Green, vice regent; Mrs. Ford S. Ball, chaplain; Mrs. Janet Moore, recording secretary; Mrs. Donald E. Wolfe, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Helen Wilson, treasurer; Mrs. Blanche O'Hara, registrar; Mrs. Herman Feustel, historian and Mrs. Carl Haugh, librarian. Mrs. Hart received a regent's pin.

Mrs. Hart reported on national defense, under the topic "Who is Helping Us in Viet Nam?"

Mrs. Green outlined the 12 resolutions from the 75th Continental Congress National Society DAR in Washington April 18-22 which she attended. She placed emphasis on two actions — legislation to make desecration of the flag a federal offense, with fines and imprisonment, and support of the armed forces, with "full military support to assure victory."

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Green, vice regent, in the absence of Mrs. George B. Fraser, regent, who is ill. Mrs. Ball, chaplain, used Ps. 33 for devotions in keeping with Memorial Day and Mrs. Faulk led the pledge of allegiance. Mrs. Hart accompanied the singing of the national anthem.

An invitation was received from the Lewis Kinney chapter in Lisbon to the annual county-wide flag day luncheon for DAR chapters June 14 at the Methodist Church. Mrs. Wolfe will have charge of reservations.

Ohio Doctors Want State Mental Program Change

CLEVELAND (AP) — Steps to bring about major improvements in the Ohio program for care of the mentally ill have been taken by the Ohio State Medical Association.

The association approved a resolution Friday at the final business session of its annual convention to enlist support in the next session of the Legislature for establishment of a separate department of mental health headed by a director with cabinet status.

Ohio facilities for treatment of the mentally ill currently are supervised by the Director of Mental Hygiene and Correction, who also has charge of the penal system.

The resolution said the linking of the mentally ill and criminals under one department is a detriment to both.

It asked for legislation placing a physician as director of mental health and establishing a board of mental health of five to seven members, including at least four physicians. The board would assist in the establishment and implementation of policies of the department.

Legislation Reviewed By Fire Groups

Legislation which will be introduced at the state convention was reviewed during the dinner meeting of the 6th District, Ohio Association of Professional Firefighters, Thursday at the Eagles Lodge here.

Representatives of about 50 locals attended the session, with Local 24 the host. Dan Eberhart of Youngstown, state vice president and district secretary, presided.

One of the chief proposals to be introduced will be legislation seeking a reduction from 72 to 56 hours in the maximum work week for firemen under state law. East Liverpool already has a 56-hour maximum for firemen.

The convention will be held June 6-10 at Columbus, with Clarence Snediker, Local 24 president, as the delegate from the city unit.

Snediker opened the meeting and turned it over to Eberhart. Speaking briefly were Mayor George E. Willshaw, Safety Service Director Robert E. Vodrey and Ed Haggerty of Cincinnati, state president. The invocation was given by Capt. Richard Bosh of the Salvation Army.

Announcement Slated On Research Center

SIDNEY, Ohio (AP) — The site for a state-operated automobile research and development center will be announced within 60 days, Gov. James A. Rhodes said Friday night.

Rhodes said at a Junior chamber of Commerce dinner here that at least 5,000 acres would be purchased for the center. It would be the largest such facility in the United States, he added.

Grasse, a leading perfume-producing town in France, has been making perfume for 200 years. Before that it was a glove-manufacturing center.

1,500 View Unity Parade

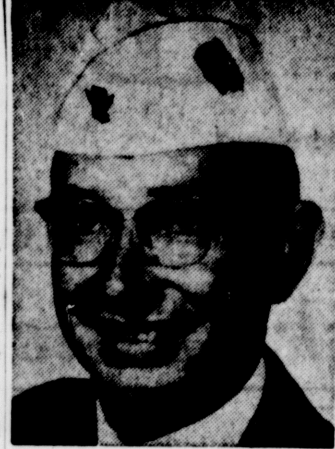

UNITY — More than 1,500 viewed the annual firemen's parade here Friday night. Fifty-four units participated.

Prizes were won by Rogers, newest fire truck; East Palestine High School, first, and New Waterford Rube Band, second, best band; East Palestine Suzettes, best drill team, and East Palestine fire department, best truck.

The firemen's fair will continue through Monday night.

Legislation Reviewed By Fire Groups

Legislation which will be introduced at the state convention was reviewed during the dinner meeting of the 6th District, Ohio Association of Professional Firefighters, Thursday at the Eagles Lodge here.

Representatives of about 50 locals attended the session, with Local 24 the host. Dan Eberhart of Youngstown, state vice president and district secretary, presided.

One of the chief proposals to be introduced will be legislation seeking a reduction from 72 to 56 hours in the maximum work week for firemen under state law. East Liverpool already has a 56-hour maximum for firemen.

The convention will be held June 6-10 at Columbus, with Clarence Snediker, Local 24 president, as the delegate from the city unit.

Snediker opened the meeting and turned it over to Eberhart. Speaking briefly were Mayor George E. Willshaw, Safety Service Director Robert E. Vodrey and Ed Haggerty of Cincinnati, state president. The invocation was given by Capt. Richard Bosh of the Salvation Army.

Announcement Slated On Research Center

SIDNEY, Ohio (AP) — The site for a state-operated automobile research and development center will be announced within 60 days, Gov. James A. Rhodes said Friday night.

Rhodes said at a Junior chamber of Commerce dinner here that at least 5,000 acres would be purchased for the center. It would be the largest such facility in the United States, he added.

Grasse, a leading perfume-producing town in France, has been making perfume for 200 years. Before that it was a glove-manufacturing center.

1,500 View Unity Parade

UNITY — More than 1,500 viewed the annual firemen's parade here Friday night. Fifty-four units participated.

Prizes were won by Rogers, newest fire truck; East Palestine High School, first, and New Waterford Rube Band, second, best band; East Palestine Suzettes, best drill team, and East Palestine fire department, best truck.

The firemen's fair will continue through Monday night.

Ohio Doctors Want State Mental Program Change

CLEVELAND (AP) — Steps to bring about major improvements in the Ohio program for care of the mentally ill have been taken by the Ohio State Medical Association.

The association approved a resolution Friday at the final business session of its annual convention to enlist support in the next session of the Legislature for establishment of a separate department of mental health headed by a director with cabinet status.

Ohio facilities for treatment of the mentally ill currently are supervised by the Director of Mental Hygiene and Correction, who also has charge of the penal system.

The resolution said the linking of the mentally ill and criminals under one department is a detriment to both.

It asked for legislation placing a physician as director of mental health and establishing a board of mental health of five to seven members, including at least four physicians. The board would assist in the establishment and implementation of policies of the department.

Youth Placed On Probation

LISBON — Frank Paul Wells, 18, of Francis St., East Liverpool, was granted probation for five years Thursday by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp.

Indicted by the April Grand Jury, young Wells pleaded guilty April 18 to a charge of malicious entry Jan. 18 at the Richard Kontner residence at 1050 St. Clair Ave., East Liverpool.

Wells was arrested by East Liverpool police, who alleged he stole a guitar and amplifier worth about $150.

In another case before Judge Sharp, Melvin Davis, 30, of W. 8th St., Salem, pleaded guilty to a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Davis requested probation and the court ordered a pre-sentence investigation and report.

Davis waived his right to have the charge presented to the Grand Jury and asked that the case against him proceed on information in the hands of Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis.

Salem police arrested Davis May 6 after he pointed a shotgun at Policeman Charles Horn who, with another officer, was called to quiet a domestic disturbance at the Davis home.

Policeman Paul Fast shot Davis through the shoulder when he pointed the gun at Horn and threatened to shoot him.

MD Group Hears Campaign Head, Selects Officers

Gerald Weinberg of New York City, national campaign director of the Muscular Dystrophy Association, discussed "Volunteers — The Means To An End," when the Beaver — Lawrence County Chapter met Wednesday night at the Grace Lutheran Church Hall in Rochester.

The following officers were elected: Anthony Kubik of Aliquippa, president; Leo Mickey of New Castle, vice president; Miss Angeline Paparella of Rochester, secretary and William Crivella of New Galilee, program treasurer.

The above, along with the following, constitute the Board of Directors: Genevieve Settino, past president, of Ambridge; Mrs. Robert Brockhouse of Chippewa Township; Mrs. Joseph Summers of Beaver Falls; Oliver Weigle of Monaca; Mrs. Thomas Thornburg of Center Township; Eugene Caputo of Ambridge; Don McFarland of New Castle and Miss Julia Tabay of Beaver.

Miss Paparella said 22 MD patients were serviced in Beaver County during the past year.

Madeline Bretz, a school teacher from Sewickley, showed slides on a recent trip to the Far East.

Mrs. Paul Luger and Mrs. Joseph Sommers of Beaver Falls served refreshments.

Ohio Station Manager To Be BPW's Speaker

Marianne Boggs Campbell, general manager of radio station WJEH at Gallipolis, Ohio, and second vice president of the Ohio Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, will address members and guests of the East Liverpool BPW Club and install 1966-67 officers following a 6:30 dinner June 8 at the Inn Town Motel.

Mrs. Campbell, who will discuss "The BPW Challenge," is the only woman to serve as a member of the Board of Directors of the National Association of Broadcasters, the only woman member of the Association's Radio Code Board and the only woman to serve on the Board of Directors of the Association for Professional Broadcasting Education — all current national posts.

IN OHIO, too, she has been recognized by her profession, being the only woman elected to the Board of Directors of the Ohio Association of Broadcasters, 1959-62, serving as first vice president in 1963 and as president in 1964.

In Gallipolis, where Mrs. Campbell has resided since becoming manager of WJEH in 1950, she has been a member of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce for six years.

Her professional background includes current posts as secretary-treasurer of the Daytime Broadcasters Association, on the Speakers Bureau of the National Association of Broadcasters, an active member of the Advertising Club of Huntington, W. Va., and the only woman member of the Small Business Administration Advisory Council for Ohio.

She is listed in the first, second, third and fourth editions of "Who's Who in American Women," also in "Who's Who in Midwest" and "Who's Who in Commerce and Industry."

Mrs. Campbell's record of service in the Ohio BPW Federation is likewise impressive. In 1959, she was chosen to represent Ohio as the "Outstanding Career Woman" at the East Central regional convention of the Nation BPW Federation in Cleveland. She has been a member of the Ohio BPW Board of Directors since 1960, serving two years each as World Affairs chairman, and one year as director of District

MRS. CAMPBELL Will Appear Here June 8.

15; was elected third vice president in 1965, and last month was elevated to the second vice-presidency. In the last named post, she also will serve as state membership chairman.

OTHER national women's organizations have honored Mrs. Campbell. In 1960, she was named as one of the "Top 10 Women Of The Year" by the American Business Women's Association and the Columbus ABW Association, Rose Capital Chapter, named her as their "Woman of the Year" for 1960-61.

She is a past president of the Gallipolis BPW Club, also the Gallipolis unit of the American Association of University Women. Currently, she is serving on the Board of Directors of that area's Tri-County Community Concert Association, a member of the Grace Methodist Church in Gallipolis and teacher of a Sunday School Class.

Local BPW members were reminded that reservations for the June 8 event are due by Wednesday with Mrs. Robert A. Kapp, club membership chairman. Non-members may attend.

Invitations to the installation affair have been sent to other BPW clubs in neighboring communities by the advance arrangements committee, which includes Miss Karole Kapp, Miss Roberta Pennybaker and Mrs. Laurence Sixt. Decorations are being arranged by Mrs. William Bricker and Mrs. L. W. Reed.

550 Are Present For Graduation At Stanton Local

HAMMONDSVILLE — More than 550 attended commencement exercises Friday night at the Stanton Local High School auditorium when 45 seniors received diplomas.

Dr. Ward Mowry, director of psychological service of Mahoning County, was guest speaker.

Members of the faculty and Board of Education presented a gift to Miss Alice Hickman, a high school teacher, who is retiring after 35 years service in the system.

The regular school closing will be next Friday, according to Supt. C. P. Henderson.

Road Oiling Project Set In St. Clair Twp.

A road oiling project was set up during the meeting of St. Clair Township trustees Friday night.

Bills totaling $1,547 were paid.

Awards Made At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — The L. W. Nash Co. scholarship was presented to James A. Reesh, son of Mrs. James Reesh of 687 W. Martin St. and the late James Reesh, during the annual Awards Assembly Friday afternoon at East Palestine High School.

The scholarship is for five years for all fees and tuition in the mechanical engineering school at Youngstown University. It was presented by E. V. Lackner, company vice president.

The Roger M. Kyes award from General Motors went to Judy Zundel from the former Unity School District. It is presented annually to the student from the Unity District with the highest grade average. It is for $100 to any accredited college.

The Orville Shook award in English, $160, went to Judith Peterson, class valedictorian.

The $100 Rotary award went to Sheryl Beight, salutatorian.

The Leader Press trophy was presented Mike Harper, senior football letterman who maintained the highest school scholastic average.

Numerous other awards were presented.

Graduation Rites Set For Lisbon's Graduating Class

LISBON — The Baccalaureate service for David Anderson High School seniors will be held at 8 p. m. Sunday in the gymnasium.

Fr. William H. Hohman of St. George Catholic Church will give the address.

The Rev. Thomas Webster of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church will give the invocation, read the Scripture and pronounce the benediction.

A choral group composed of students Marta Frola, Cindy Gibson, Jayne McBride, Jennifer Mason, Beverly Webber, Russell Long, Rodney Wilson and James Kelm will sing "Hear My Cry, O Lord," and "Savior, Source of Every Blessing."

Miss McBride, a junior, will play the processional and recessional.

Commencement exercises will be held Friday at 7 p. m. at War Memorial Stadium or in the gym if the weather is inclement.

Tests Scheduled For State's Jobs

The State Department of Personnel said today at Columbus Civil Service examinations have been scheduled for several posts in state agencies.

An exam will be held Friday, June 17, in Columbus for personnel technicians in Grades I, II and III to fill posts in the Department of Personnel. Starting salaries range from $420 to $575.

A test is scheduled at Columbus Friday, June 10, for the post of employment security specialist in grades IV through VII.

In either instance, application forms may be obtained from any Ohio State Employment Service office, any county auditor's office or the Department of State Personnel, Ohio Department Building, Columbus 43215.

Talks Are Given On Conservation

LISBON — Three speakers discussed various phases of conservation for the Columbiana County Forests and Parks Council Thursday night at the Williamsport Church in Beaver Creek State Park.

Herman L. Reuter of the Columbiana Soil and Water Conservation office at Lisbon spoke on soil, water and forest conservation.

Clifford F. Shaw, manager of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee office here, discussed federal aid for forest and wildlife conservation.

County Commissioner R. Max Gard of Lisbon emphasized the importance of conserving historical places.

Donald Elliott of Rogers, president, was in charge.

The next meeting will be June 30 at the church which the council purchased and restored as a non-denominational worship center for park visitors and campers. The church will be dedicated Sunday afternoon.

Pennsylvania Reports Lowest Unemployed

HARRISBURG (AP) — The state's estimated unemployment rate in May has fallen to a new all-time low for the second consecutive month, says Gov. Scranton.

The 3.1 per cent rate for May is the lowest since records were started in 1950 and was a drop from April's 3.3 per cent rate, Scranton said Friday.

Intruder Gets $148 In Store

Police today continued investigation of a burglary discovered Friday in which $148.21 was taken from the Bi-Low, Inc., discount store at 136 E. 5th St.

Officers said the intruder carried away the cash in two cloth sacks bearing the imprint of the Potters Bank & Trust Co.

Entrance was gained by pulling away a metal bar on a window on the west side of the building, then breaking the pane of glass to manipulate two latches mounted on the inside, officers said.

The window gave the burglar access to the washroom. He then entered the sales room, located the cash in a hiding place and apparently fled through the same window.

Police said an inventory would be taken to find if anything else was missing.

The burglary was discovered Friday morning. Officers said it apparently took place sometime after the store closed Thursday night at 9. Arnold Hanson of Newton Falls was listed as the store's owner.

Capt. Robert H. Pyle and Patrolman Paul A. Burson Jr. investigated.

Lloyd Was Director Of Training Project

Assistant Chief Robert Lloyd of Wellsville was the instructor for the training program of Liverpool Township volunteer firemen and not Chief Robert Lewis of Wellsville as reported Friday.

Lloyd also spoke during a banquet held by the Liverpool Township departments marking their 10th anniversary. Lewis was a guest.

John, the husband of Betsy Ross, was killed while guarding gunpowder during the war before his widow designed and made the first American flag.

Speaking Of Free Elections

If the United States had not developed an obsession about Viet Nam, it would have had more time to worry about its intervention in the Dominican Republic.

At the height of the intervention, which began late in April a year ago, 24,000 U. S. troops were on Dominican soil. The reason, as in South Viet Nam, was to prevent a Communist takeover.

And the potential way out, also as in South Viet Nam, was a free election. The free election will be held next Wednesday. Three presidential candidates will be competing for popular favor.

Whoever wins is not likely to stay on top long. This might mean further U. S. intervention, though it would be likelier to mean intervention by the Organization of American States. The new president, expected to be Juan Bosch, the former president in whose name the revolt of April 1965 was started, will inherit a political and economic shambles. The unemployment rate is estimated to be more than one third of the total male work force.

Historically, the legacy of the previous U. S. intervention in the Dominican Republic — from 1916 to 1924 — was the Trujillo regime, which earned a reputation for brutality that chilled all warmth of feeling for the United States among knowledgeable Latin Americans.

Bosch is not Trujillo, but it must not be forgotten that Trujillo did not stay powerful both as president and the power behind the presidency from 1930 until his assassination in 1961 by being considerate of his political enemies. That was significant tenure of power for a Latin American strong man. It is not likely to be repeated again in the Dominican Republic.

It Would Be A Welcome Change

It cannot be called surprising that a Vietnamese mob tried to destroy the U.S. Information Service building in Hue and apparently did a creditable job. Fortunately, the building was closed and no personnel felt the wrath of the mob.

Increasing incidents of violence against the United States in South Viet Nam raise a question. Who are the Vietnamese who want the United States to be in their country?

The question is not who tolerates the presence of the United States because it is a bountiful source of money and goods but who really wants the United States to stay until Viet Nam is pacified.

Undoubtedly, there is support for the presence of outside powers in South Viet Nam. Undoubtedly, there are Vietnamese who want the United States and its meager backing of allies to stay in Southeast Asia.

Long Life And A Merry One

A British physician, Sir George W. Pickering of Oxford University, has come to grips with a challenge that medical doctors have been dodging.

If medical science continues to lengthen the span of life, he warns, the earth will be completely occupied by human beings, more and more of them hopelessly senile. Medical science can hold forth no hope of prolonging the useful life of the human brain, though it has been adding years to the useful life of the human body.

Sir George, speaking to a symposium at Columbia University, declared the medical profession should be prepared to revise its ideas

Bad News For The Unemployed

No longer does a coast-to-coast wage go up when Congress raises the minimum wage. Since 1938, when a legislative decision was made to set it at 25 cents an hour, it has been learned that in fact the ever-rising minimum wage always stays below the minimum need.

This will be true next year when the minimum goes to $1.40, and if it goes to $1.60 by 1969, which is the level set in the House bill passed Thursday, there will be a gap between actual earnings at the level and minimum needs. Inflation assures the disparity.

But some other things have been learned since 1938, too.

Minimum wage legislation is bad news for the unemployed. It is bad news for the unskilled. It is bad news for all workers who can be supplanted by mechanized and automated installations.

Minimum wage levels are no comfort to anti-inflationists, because the new levels have a tendency to raise all wage levels artificially. Skilled workers want to maintain differentials between their wage levels and the new minimum levels.

The over-all effect is to minimize employment in the categories of labor where the unemployment problem is most acute — marginally useful workers whose employment can be justified only at wage rates bearing a realistic relationship to the value of services performed.

Especially hard hit are aging employees and employees in small enterprises trying to get along on nominal profit margins.

Minimum wage levels, deeply controversial when incorporated into federal law in 1938, now are accepted as national policy. But no one contends they have been an unmitigated blessing. They strike at the most vulnerable sector of the working population — workers of minimum usefulness.

Purely Personal

I cannot get it through my thick head why we should monkey with a way to make surplus U.S. wheat look like rice so starving Indians will consent to eat it. If we had a wheat crop failure and India sent us rice, I'd wolf it down and be grateful — and I don't like rice.

President Johnson now is being accused of political ineptitude, of all things, by fellow Democrats. The U.S. presidency has turned into a public trial by fire, in which the victim has no chance to emerge unscathed.

Our all-breed champion dog that we named "Muttie" for obvious reasons has come to be known to hard-of-hearing acquaintances as "Mxie," which would have been a better name in the first place.

When medicare goes into effect next month, it is going to be a shock to learn that all it can do is pay the bill. Hospitals still will be short of beds and finding a nursing home still will be a chancy proposition.

Anyone who doesn't make a special effort to see nature at its beautiful best in blossom time isn't trying to enjoy the privilege of living in the best of all possible worlds during the best of all possible seasons.

I wouldn't want this to be noised around, but except for a professional model I watched last summer while she was posing for commercial photographers, I never have seen a woman in a "bit-teeny" bathing suit. As to the model, annhh. She wasn't my type.

I wouldn't surprise me when I am reincarnated to find that all residential housing, except for apartments, has become mobile units. This will solve the problem of what to do about seedy neighborhoods. Just tow away the evidence and start fresh.

June Weddings

June weddings were as popular in ancient Rome as they are now in the United States. Juno was a powerful Roman goddess and a guardian of marriage. June may or may not have been named for her, but the people of Rome regarded this pleasant month as an ideal time to get married.

Romans considered May a highly inopportune time for marriage, but the Christian Church eventually overcame the bias. May as well as June weddings were encouraged, because the Christian clergy frowned on marriage during Lent and other periods of fasting and penitence.

Even pagan Romans believed matrimony to be a sacred and solemn undertaking. As defined by the Roman jurist Modestinus, marriage was "a union of man and woman, a partnership of all life, a sharing of rights human and divine."

Rome's June bride was often a teen-ager — 14 or 15 years old. On the night before her wedding, she dedicated her childhood clothes and toys to the household gods. She wore her engagement ring on the left third finger in the belief that a sinew ran directly from it to the heart. Engagement and wedding rings are still worn on the same finger.

'Hang On, Fellas.'

Powell Labeled Labor's 'Roadblock'

By Victor Riesel

In recent weeks President Johnson playfully has permitted a labor leader to sit in his Oval Room chair just to see how it feels.

Another labor leader sat at the President's bedside while the chief executive, for an hour after lunch, relaxed and mused aloud.

Still two others spent three hours with Mr. Johnson during the height of the Da Nang crisis. And a labor man was at his table during the farewell White House dinner to Ambassador Lodge on the eve of his return to Saigon.

At the moment, what was discussed in all these hours is very much off the record. So is what they did not discuss.

It's presumed that in some of these talks there loomed large the 6-foot-4 figure of Rev. Adam Clayton Powell, Democratic representative from Harlem, the congressman labor now refers to as the "one-man roadblock."

There is no doubt that the labor men have wanted—and do want—the President to put the heat on the pastor.

THERE IS NO EVIDENCE that the President, devoted to the theory that politics is the art of the possible, has turned on the pressure.

It's not generally realized that the debonair Negro congressman has prevented labor from getting what it has wanted most for more than 15 years. Some call it liberalized picketing laws, some refer to it as common situs picketing and some dub it the end of the ban on secondary boycott.

Call it what you will. It means, for example, that a union would have the right to picket the entire Moonport project even if it had a dispute with only one of 50 contractors on the construction site. This would stop all work—not just the operations of the company involved in the union dispute.

To understand the full force of labor's drive on this front, one should understand that the building and construction unions consider the right to situs picketing (now illegal) as a matter of life and death.

Since there are 18 construction unions, with a membership of 3.5 million, and it is the biggest unified bloc inside the AFL-CIO, the issue has become labor's No. 1 campaign.

BUT MR. POWELL, chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee, after scheduling the situs bill for a floor vote the other week, reversed position. After all these years it would have passed but he blocked it suddenly and with no real explanation, though publicly he had supported it.

So I asked him why he threw up the roadblock. It's accurate to report the Congressman's reply as follows:

No one telephoned or contacted him in behalf of labor.

He did not get a call on the matter from President Johnson, nor Labor Secretary Wirtz, nor Speaker John McCormack.

Nor did any labor leaders talk to him. The latter men by-passed him and dealt with the pro-labor Congressman Frank Thompson, head of the labor subcommittee.

In fact, according to the Powell version, the President just never discussed the matter with him—not even when they spent more than 90 minutes together in the White House talking about secondary education and poverty.

THEN THERE IS THE MATTER of a telephone conference call made in mid-April. At one end of the line were Speaker John McCormack and Representatives Carl Albert (majority leader), John Dent and Adam Powell. They were on extensions in the speaker's office.

At the other end of the White House was President Johnson. They discussed social legislation—but they never mentioned common situs picketing.

So the powerful Congressman Powell decided at the last minute that no one but the labor leaders really wanted to liberalize the picketing laws. And he blocked the move.

This came after he had made a compact with the same labor leaders to get the Hawkins equal employment enforcement bill through the House. Believing it had a deal, labor really pushed for that bill and it passed with a greater margin than any of the other civil rights legislation.

Powell told his intimates that he really was going to give labor what it wanted—but in July or August. Then they blasted him and pinned on him, the "one-man roadblock" label.

So he said the hell with it and decided to wait at least until the 90th Congress before permitting the House to vote on labor's most wanted legislation.

The labor men are smart wrestlers themselves. One fall does not make a bout. It should be a hot season in the old arena.

Air Cleared

By David Lawrence

Rusk Clarifies American Position.

Uncertainty is one of the biggest factors that disturbs business. It affects not only the long-range but current planning.

For many months now, uncertainty about the future of the Viet Nam situation has been hanging like a cloud over the whole economy. Chairman William McChesney Martino of the Federal Reserve Board, in a speech before the International Bankers Conference in Madrid, declared that basic decisions on the Viet Nam War constitute "the critical issue and the major problem" for David Lawrence the American economy.

President Johnson himself has said he is trying to avoid a tax increase and wage-and-price controls.

Coincidentally, Secretary of State Dean Rusk has just made a speech in New York City which clarifies the American position and should have a decisive influence in bringing the Viet Nam problem closer to an early solution than was deemed possible a few weeks ago.

The United States recently has cleared up many things. One of them is that America is not going to be swayed by the internal friction in South Viet Nam and intends to continue to protect that country against aggression. More important, however, is what Secretary of State Rusk has said to the rest of the world about the American position. His statement should remove all doubts that recent events would cause the United States policy to totter or perhaps bring about a withdrawal.

THE SECRETARY did not mention Sen. Fulbright, but in the course of his speech rebutted some of the arguments that could amount only to appeasement if accepted. Mr. Rusk said:

"If mankind is to achieve a peaceful world order safe for free institutions, it's essential that aggression be eliminated — if possible by deterring it, or, if it occurs, by repelling it. The clearest lesson of the 1930s and '40s is that aggression feeds on aggression. I'm aware that Mao and Ho Chi Minh are not Hitler and Mussolini but we should not forget what we have learned about the anatomy and physiology of aggression. We ought to know better than to ignore the aggressor's openly proclaimed intentions or to fall victim to the notion that he will stop if you let him have just one more bite or speak to him a little more gently.

"I believe it is widely understood that a thermonuclear aggression would not be a rational act. I believe it's generally realized that aggression by moving masses of conventional forces would entail very grave risks. What the Communists, in their familiar upside down language, call 'wars of liberation' are advocated and supported by Moscow as well as by Peking. The assault on the Republic of Viet Nam is a critical test of that technique of aggression."

SECRETARY RUSK pointed out that the United States during the last 20 years has never regarded Southeast Asia and Viet Nam as "obscure" or "remote" or "unimportant." He traced the American commitment as being primarily derived from the Southeast Asia collective defense treaty, signed in 1954 and approved by the Senate in 1955 with only one dissenting vote.

Mr. Rusk reiterated the declaration he made in Bangkok in March 1961 that the United States would, under the treaty, continue to assist the free nations of Southeast Asia "who are struggling for their survival against armed minorities directed, supplied, and supported from without."

Secretary Rusk declared that "a large majority of the governments of the free world are sympathetic to our efforts in Southeast Asia and would be alarmed were they to fail." He added:

"Gallant troops from the Republic of Korea, Australia and New Zealand are fighting at the side of our forces and those of the Republic of Viet Nam. Thailand and Laos are fully engaged in the larger issue of Southeast Asia."

MR. RUSK AGAIN said that he remains "prepared to go to Geneva immediately whenever there is anybody there with whom to negotiate peace."

The more the United States government emphasizes to the rest of the world that it's determined, no matter how long a time is required, to attain the objectives of its policy in Southeast Asia, the sooner will the North Vietnamese realize that it's futile for them to continue their aggression and that they would fare much better if an honorable peace settlement is achieved.

Hedge Bites Dust At Sunnyside In Cleanup Project

"Action" was the key word of the Sunnyside Improvement Committee Friday night when members joined forces to remove a large, overgrown hedge in the neighborhood.

James H. Grafton, chairman, said a number of neighborhood residents went to work last night and cut down 50 feet of hedge that was overgrown and unsightly at the corner of Florence and John Sts.

Men, women and children tackled the hedges, which were 15 feet high, Grafton said.

The property owner agreed to allow the committee to remove the growth, Grafton pointed out.

The committee now is seeking trucks to haul away the hedge.

The monthly meetings will resume Friday, Sept. 23, at the hotel.

Algerians Nationalize Insurance Companies

ALGIERS (AP) — The Algerian government has nationalized all insurance companies and has made the insurance business a state monopoly.

Announcing the move Friday, Finance Minister Kaid Ahmed said foreign insurance companies were draining $40 million or 2 per cent of the gross national revenue out of the Algerian economy each year.

About a dozen foreign insurance companies were affected by the measure. One is American, the New Hampshire Insurance Co. of Manchester, N.H.

Two Girls Are Among 15 Treated At City Hospital

A New Cumberland area girl injured in gym class and a city girl injured on a tree were admitted Friday to City Hospital.

Pamela Baker, daughter of Harold Baker of New Cumberland R.D. 1, is in "fair" condition today with contusions of the scalp and a possible concussion suffered when she fell and struck her head on a concrete floor in gym class.

Dianna Kidder, daughter of Melvin Kidder of E. 4th St., is in "satisfactory" condition with a laceration of the left arm suffered when she caught it on a tree last night.

Thirteen others were treated yesterday.

Noreen Farnsworth, daughter of James Farnsworth of 204 McKee St., suffered first- and second-degree burns of the back when hot water splashed on her. Judith Raffle of Chester R.D. 1 received a contusion of the left thumb when a stamper machine struck her while she was working at the National Church Supply Co.

Pamela Beagle of 1028 St. Clair Ave. had a button removed from her nose.

Mike McDevitt, son of Jim McDevitt of 613 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, suffered a laceration of the scalp when he hit a rock while driving.

William Howell, son of Mrs. Isabelle Howell of 1710 Eturia St., was cut on the toe while swimming.

Fred Stern of 1069 St. George St. suffered a contusion of the right foot when he dropped a brick while working at the H. K. Porter Co.

Cathy Standley, daughter of Clark Standley of 1931 Ohio Ave., received a laceration of the forehead when she struck her head on a rock while swimming.

Rebecca Eagle, daughter of Ray Eagle of Calcutta, suffered a puncture wound of the right foot when she stepped on a needle.

Craig Whittington, son of Melvin Whittington of 102 Grant St., Newell, was treated for contusions and abrasions of the right leg after being scraped by cleats during a baseball game.

James Stein, son of Clayton Stein of 10 Washington St., Newell, received lacerations of the left foot when cut by cleats during a baseball game.

Donald Johnson, son of Walter Johnson of the Grims Bridge Rd., was bitten on the left index finger by a snake.

Nancy Joy, daughter of Ned Joy of 602 15th St., Wellsville, suffered a puncture wound of the foot when she stepped on a nail.

Mrs. Bernice Greathouse of 1003 Lisbon St. was cut on the left leg when she fell on the sidewalk.

Japanese City Hit By Strong Quake

TOKYO (AP) — A strong earthquake rocked Japan's quake town Matsushiro today, the Central Meteorological Agency reported.

Initial reports said window panes shattered and tiles fell from roofs in the town of 22,600 population 112 miles north of Tokyo.

The quake registered five on the Japanese scale of seven. The quake also shook the city of Nagano, five miles northeast of Matsushiro.

Matsushiro has been rocked daily by tremors since Aug. 3, 1965.

FBI Releases Youth In Bomb Threat Incident

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The FBI has released after questioning the 19-year-old youth it seized in a dragnet while guarding a train from a threatened bombing.

No bomb was found, and the train, a Pennsylvania Railroad train to Wilmington Thursday night, sped to its destination unharmed.

The boy was arrested near the scene where FBI agents and train crewmen saw a signal flashed at them. A letter to the railroad had demanded $100,000 be thrown from the train at the signal, or it would be wrecked.

Scores of FBI men joined the search, some of them aboard the train and others at various points along the track. A helicopter flew above the train and turned a spotlight on the youth, who was picked up.

The FBI declined to make any comment about the case.

Japan Approves Indonesian Loan

TOKYO (AP) — Japan pledged an emergency three-month, $30-million loan to Indonesia today and said it would be willing to loan more if other nations joined in.

In a joint communiqué signed by Japanese officials and a visiting Indonesian delegation, Japan called for a meeting of an international conference to aid the shattered Indonesian economy "at the earliest possible date."

If this conference takes place, the communiqué added, Japan "would be prepared to bear its appropriate share in the scheduling of Indonesia's external debt payments and the extending of new loans."

Under President Sukarno, Indonesia piled up a massive $2.4 billion debt to countries including the United States, Japan, the Soviet Union, West Germany and the Netherlands. Obligations to the Soviet Union alone total one billion dollars.

Marine Earns Double Promotion Same Day

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — The U.S. Marine Corps thinks so much of Viet Nam veteran Rudolf D. Heyse that it promoted him twice in the same day.

Heyse, 35, began the day Friday as a gunnery sergeant. Then, in a rapid-fire ceremony, he found himself first a master sergeant, then a second lieutenant.

A Marine spokesman said the rare double elevation came about because Heyse applied for a career officer program.

His application was approved on the same day he won a promotion to top sergeant for his service in Viet Nam.

Mrs. Peters Elected Head Of District Women's Clubs

Mrs. Dorothy E. Peters was elected president of the Ohio Valley District during the semi-annual meeting of the Ohio Valley Association of Colored Women's Clubs at the Second Baptist Church.

She has served as president of the local Dauntless Friendship Federated Club, which was hostess unit. Mrs. Eleanor Roach, president of the local group, was retained as district treasurer.

Mrs. Ethel Prear of Dayton, state president, presided for the election and installation. In her address, she advised the clubs of the various state projects and asked the district's endorsement for another term as president.

The state convention will be held June 26-29 at Columbus. Mrs. Helen Hython of Steubenville, retiring district president, was named delegate and Mrs. Peters alternate.

The name of the late Mrs. E. H. Harris of the local club was included in the memorial service held for those who have died since October.

Mrs. Edna Banks extended the welcome for the opening forenoon session. The Rev. E. H. Harris, pastor, offered greetings from the congregation. Mrs. Hython presided.

Unit reports were heard from the five Steubenville clubs and the local group which make up the district.

Named to various committees were Mrs. Banks, nominating; Mrs. Callie Euille, courtesy; and Mrs. Sarah Taylor, publicity.

Pre-Marital Course Will Wind Up Sunday

The final course of instruction on pre-marital planning and sex education for high school seniors and post-high young people will be held Sunday from 7:30 to 9 p. m. in the social rooms of the Methodist church. be held in June. She also announced a second overnight hike for Girl Scouts on June 10 at Brady's Run.

Members of the Junior troop wrote and presented the play "The Hillbillies." The cast included Ruth Ann Honaker, Susan Wright, Mary Kay Chambers and Annette Vassallo.

Mrs. Glenda White and Mrs. Mildred Vassallo are leader and co-leader of the Junior troop, while Mrs. Ann Tessler and Mrs. Alice Honaker are leader and co-leader of the Brownies. Refreshments were served. A centerpiece of wildflowers was made by Mrs. Mildred Kukich.

Industry

Mrs. Pat Nuzzo 643-4508

Girls from the ages of 8 to 15 of the St. Christine Catholic Church in Industry will have the opportunity to attend Camp Fatima, the diocesan summer camp, and participate in a variety of activities, including aqua ballet, horseback riding, interpretive dancing and swimming.

Those interested may contact the pastor, Fr. A. E. Williams, or the Camp Fatima office.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gifford of Industry have concluded an extended trip to the west coast where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miller in Glendora, Calif., and their son, Dr. David Gifford of Stockton, Calif., and other relatives.

Sharon Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Graham of Industry, was discharged Thursday from Rochester Hospital following treatment for rheumatic fever.

She celebrated her 10th birthday while in the hospital. She is a fourth-grade student at the Ray Snyder School in Industry.

Women's Day Set At AME Church

Women's Day will be observed at Wellsville Lee's Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday, with Mrs. Myrtle Douglas, of Cleveland speaker at the 11 a. m. worship. She is the widow of the Rev. J. H. Douglas, former pastor of the Sheridan AME Church.

A few rally will be held at 7:30 p. m., with the guest speaker the Rev. W. S. Hopson of the Washington (Pa.) St. Paul's AME Church.

Music will be provided by the Hutchinson Trio of East Liverpool and the Lee's Choir.

Ken Bear, Quartet Due At Church In Midland

Ken Bear and the Masters Quartette of Harrisburg will sing at the Midland Assembly of God Church Sunday at 7:30 p. m.

They will also sing at an End-of-Semester Spring Celebration Rally when the Beaver Valley Christian Youth Fellowship meets Saturday at 7:30 p. m. at the L.B.E.W. Hall in Vanport.

Trinity U.P. To Honor Choir Director Sunday

Donald F. Allcorn, who for the last six years has served as director of the Canticle Choir of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, will be honored during the 11 a. m. worship Sunday at the church.

He has been a member of the local church since childhood and was also a member of the choir, which he directs. Allcorn is an instructor in the public schools of Kent, where he lives. He also instructs at Baldwin-Wallace College.

He is the son of Mrs. Maple G. Allcorn of Walnut St. and the late Clifford W. Allcorn. Mrs. Allcorn also will be recognized for the part she has played in the music of the church.

J. Wilbur Newman of Pond St., who has been a member of the choir for 62 years, was honored at the choir dinner last week.

The sign at the entrance of the church will be dedicated Sunday morning. It bears the words "Trinity Presbyterian Church" and a memorial plaque with the inscription "In memory of Richard E. Watson, June 3, 1951, by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edison G. Watson."

A member of the church, Richard was killed while serving in the Air Force. The sign was constructed by Roy Dray, Joseph Persohn, Kenneth Persohn, Richard Springer, Carl Swoger, Ray Wagner and Robert Weaver.

The service will feature favorite anthems by the choir, directed by Allcorn, and four hymns by the congregation.

Events Set In Churches Of District

The Rev. Otto Yount of Wiloughby, Ohio, will speak at the Etruria St. Church of God Sunday during the 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. services. Music will be featured at both services. The public is invited.

There will be no services at the First Spiritualist Church Sunday or Monday because of Memorial Day.

A Field Mass will be held on Memorial Day at Columbiana County Memorial Park at 10 a. m., weather permitting. Fr. Donald DeCarlo, an assistant at St. Aloysius Catholic Church, will be celebrant.

During a special service Sunday at 3 p. m. at the Mt. Sinai Fire Baptized Holiness Church of Wellsville, the Rev. C. W. Goss, pastor of the Zion Hill Baptist Church of Youngstown, will be the speaker. Mrs. Pearl Franklin is sponsor of the service for the pastor's anniversary.

Revival meetings are continuing each night at 7:45 at the Fellowship Church, 465 Mulberry St.

The Rev. Albert Ward, pastor of the Antioch Baptist Church, will be guest speaker for the missionary society at the First Baptist Church of Wellsville Sunday at 3 p. m. Mrs. Naomi Roach is president of the society.

Church To Hold Memorial Rites

ducted at the Chester Church of the Nazarene Sunday during Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Mrs. Mary Ward and Mrs. Martha Carpenter will be in charge.

James Martin will present an organ selection and Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Carpenter a duet.

The choir and ensemble will sing at the 10:45 a. m. service. At the 7:30 p. m. service, the choir will render the music. The Rev. Herman Ward is pastor.

The Sunday School board will meet Tuesday at 7 p. m. at the church, followed with a Sunday School teachers' meeting at 7:30.

Students To Receive Bibles At Glenmoor

Gale Williams, Sunday School superintendent of the Glenmoor United Presbyterian Church, will present Bibles to high school graduates Sunday morning.

Recipients of Bibles will include Jane Althar, Sandra Krepps, Carol Lynn, Cheryl Rice, Verne Rice and John Woodruff.

Family Tradition

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. 8 The honors stayed in the family when William G. Paul was named the "Outstanding Young Man of 1965" by the Oklahoma City Junior Chamber of Commerce. The 35-year-old lawyer was presented with the award by his brother, Homer Paul Jr., who won the same honor the previous year.

Baptists Vow Independence

DETROIT (AP)—Nearly 11,000 delegates to the Southern Baptist Convention were homebound today after a four-day session in which they decided to remain independent of the ecumenical movement.

The Rev. Herschell Paschall of Nashville, Tenn., newly elected president of the convention, said Southern Baptists would be willing to discuss ideas of other churches, but saw no place for themselves in any federation of churches.

Southern Baptists, with 10 million members, comprise the largest Protestant denomination in the United States. Despite the name, churches affiliated with the convention are located throughout the country.

The most widely discussed issue of the convention involved a man who was not there, and it did not reach the floor until the final hours. He was Bill D. Moyers, special assistant to President Johnson.

Moyers, an ordained Southern Baptist Minister, had been slated to receive a convention award for outstanding work in the field of communications. Some Baptist ministers in Texas and Oklahoma questioned the award after it became known earlier this month that Moyers had danced the Watusi at a Washington charity ball.

Moyers asked that his name be withdrawn, but the convention's radio and television committee let the nomination stand.

The Rev. Paul Stevens, executive secretary of the commission, said the award would be presented in October, probably at the White House.

Church At Wellsville To Honor Graduates

High School graduates will be honored during 10:45 a. m. worship at the Wellsville First Church of the Nazarene. Mrs. Rome Prescott will sing.

At the 7:30 p. m. service, Mrs. Violet Farnsworth will sing and Roy Duffield will present instrumental numbers. Mrs. Frank Ludman will be organist and Mrs. Wilbur Forester pianist. The Rev. Clark Allison is pastor.

A MOMENT OF MEDITATION

"You Do Not Believe In Music."

The above statement is often made to those who are members of the Church of Christ. However, this statement is based on a misunderstanding. We do believe in music in the worship of God. There are two kinds of music. One is produced by use of the vocal cords while the other is made by use of a mechanical instrument of music. Those who are members of the Church of Christ do not believe in the use of a mechanical instrument of music in worship to God. We believe in music produced by singing. We do not take this position just to be odd or different but this position is based on conviction formed by study of the Word of God.

First, let it be noted that the New Testament refers to praising God by singing. There is no New Testament authority for the use of an instrument of music in worship in the New Testament church. Paul said, "Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord." Eph. 5:19. Note that the passage does not say singing and playing an instrument but just specifies singing. This same fact can be seen by noting Col. 3:16 and James 5:13.

Some have argued that an instrument was used in the Old Testament and thus it would be alright today. The error of this reasoning is seen by noting that we are living under the New Testament or the Law of Christ. Heb. 9:15; Heb. 10:9. Under the Old Law they also were authorized to offer animal sacrifice and to burn incense. Yet no one is contending for these to be practiced today. Paul teaches that if we want to keep any of the Law we are debtor to do it all. Gal. 3:3. Thus, for us to be authorized to use mechanical music today there would have to be some authority in the New Law. This Law just says "sing".

Others have argued that the new Law does not specifically condemn the use of a piano or an organ and Him.

Dear friends, none of us have a right to tell God what we will use in worship to Him. He has told us to sing. May we resolve to obey Him.

HOW DO you measure the importance of time? Wouldn't you say that memorializing your name through hundreds of years is worth a few hours of your time now? The family Monument stands as a symbol of unity in death, binding one generation to another. It dates and documents all family history for posterity to read and respect. If your family plot still lacks this tribute, we will gladly assist you in selecting the Monument that will most appropriately bespeak your sentiments. We invite you to visit our showrooms, where you can shop in comfort and privacy, also actually see what you select. If you are unable to visit us, we will gladly offer home counsel. We also carry a complete line of beautifully designed Bronze Markers. Something vital will be missing unless you choose your Graham and Wagner Memorial today, and discharge with distinction one of life's personal duties. Have you forgotten someone?

Memoriam For Soldier

They covered his broken body,
And carried him back from where
The violent encounter took place,
And the noise of all the fighting died,
And the wet night came on,
And the wind whispered in the trees,
And each of us was alone with the thought,
Of the nearness of our own death,
Selfish and yet self-conscious of our own
Sense of aliveness while they - - -
The silent, the limp, the lost - - -
Lay under the shrouds, of their own muddy coats.
They had departed forever from our friendship,
The banter and loyal ties of our camp fires.

THEY WERE NO more - to us, to their grief-gripped widows,
To their saddened, bewildered sons and daughters,
To their sobbing mothers and grim-mouthed fathers - -
Only shadowing memories of young men - bold, strong
Laughing at times.

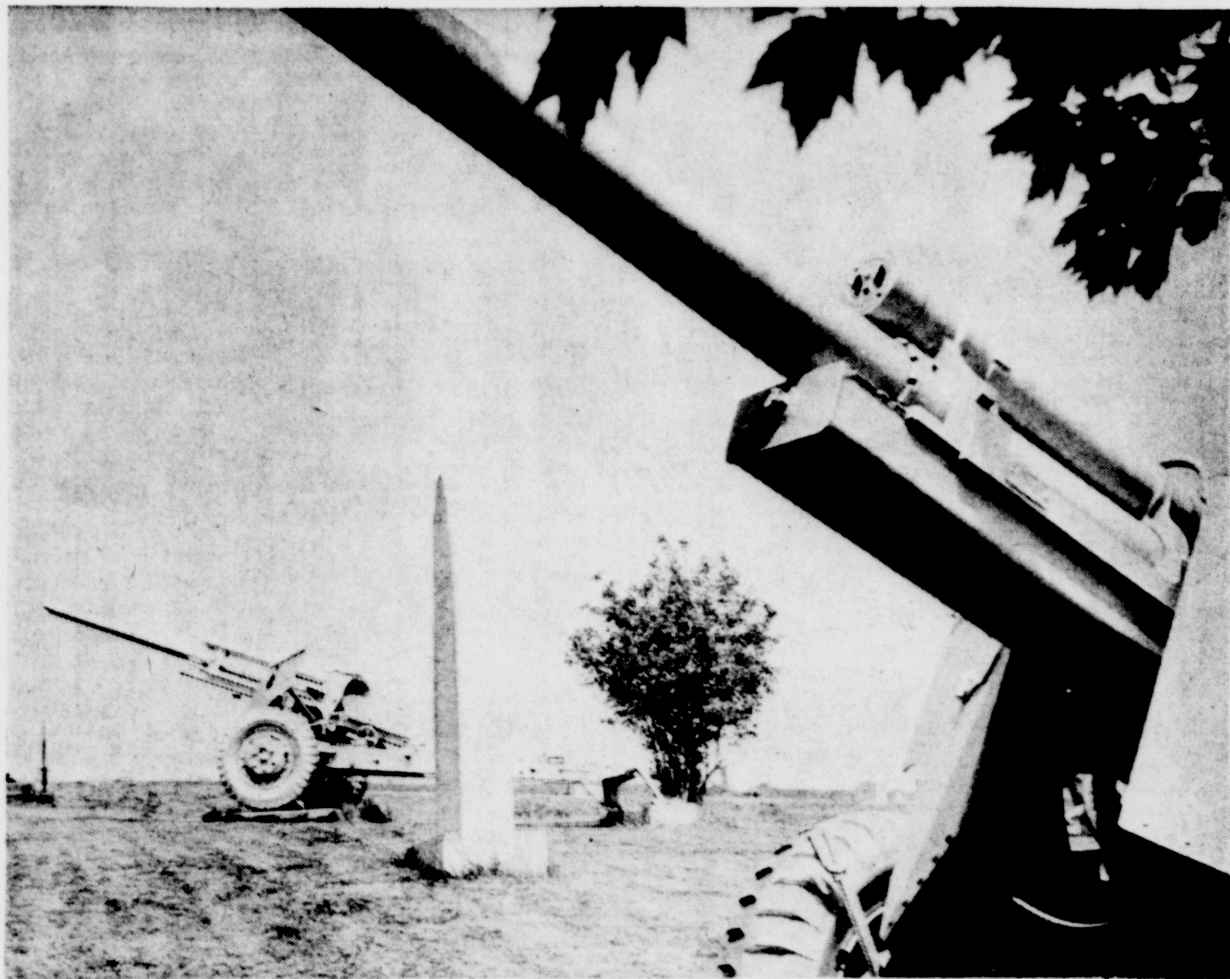

NOW, ON THE edge of this battle carnage,
This brutish offense against humanity,
We ponder the nation's debt to them,
The solemn dip of the flag,
The salute with the weapons,
The bugle's prayer . . .
But even more meaningful in the aftermath
Of their great sacrifice are
The soft smile of a child,
The gentle love of family,
The pride of knowing what had to be done,
Was done.

Outdoor Notes

By HARRY STEWART
Review Staff Member

IDEAL weather finally arrived in the district this week but the fish have apparently decided to take a holiday.

The past week did not prove very fruitful for district fishermen although muskies, walleyes and crappies were hitting at Piedmont, Leesville, Pymatuning, Mosquito and other area lakes.

Ed Orr of Glenmoor scored last Friday at Pymatuning with a 5 1/4-pound walleye. He also caught several others. Ed lost two big ones before he finally landed one. He was using spinning tackle and the light line broke.

Ed, who returned to Pymatuning Thursday for his third week, has caught 25 walleyes to date. He also caught several white bass and crappies a week ago, along with numerous channel catfish.

Ed was using live bait drifted on the bottom.

CRAPPIES HAVE STARTED biting very good at Pymatuning, Mosquito, Clendenin and other area lakes.

My fishing buddy, Don McFarland, and I were at Mosquito a week ago trying for walleyes. We never had a strike.

We caught several nice crappies averaging 9 to 10 inches. I caught two that were about 11 1/2 inches. They were hitting minnows although we caught about 50 per cent of ours on spinning lures. They were hitting black and white doll flies and a white Name lure.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Orr hold walleyes.

We camped at Mecca Sports Shop Landing near the center of the lake, just below the causeway that crosses the reservoir. This is one of three concessions operated on the lake on a lease basis from the state. Pete Savu, the owner, proved very helpful in locating the good fishing spots for us.

The lake is higher than normal and the crappies were back in the bays and inlets in very shallow water. Actually they were back in the tops of the willows sticking out of the water.

We had to pole the boat back among the willows and fish down through small openings.

A word of advice. If you try this make sure you have a small dip net with you. We would have lost half of ours if we hadn't had a net. Although it wouldn't have mattered the way they were biting the two days we were there.

Mosquito is a shallow lake and in a brisk wind, it is very rough.

THE STATE ANNOUNCED the past week that electric motors up to four horsepower rating are allowed to be used on all Division of Wildlife owned lakes.

This includes Zepernick Lake, Highlandtown Lake and Ruff Pond in Columbiana County.

The state says that a recent survey by the Fish Management Section shows that more fish are taken by boat fishermen than by shore fishermen. Wildlife officials say that because of their small size, electric motors will not cause a shore erosion problem.

TEST NETTING AT GUILFORD Lake was canceled the past week. The state was to have made a fish census but personnel are about a week behind in all schedules.

Test nets will be put in Guilford next week if all goes well. Jenkins Lake near Highlandtown was test netted this week, but the results were very disappointing.

The nets were full of crappies, all small. Most were about 6 inches although there was one 16-inch crappie in the bunch. A 16-inch bass was caught.

The lake is literally polluted with nice size suckers. No one seems to fish for them. Ken Helper, fish production foreman, says they are from 14 to 16 inches.

The problem now is what to do with all the fish. They probably will have to be destroyed after the water is drained because the state does not want stunted crappies in Highlandtown Lake which is being constructed down the valley from Jenkins.

Even if the fish were removed and put in other waters, chances are they would not grow any larger.

As crappies will be introduced into Highlandtown Lake, it would be better to destroy the stunted ones and start with new stock.

BASS ARE SPAWNING now and bluegills are starting to move into the spawning beds. Muskies, walleyes and northern pike spawn earlier. Fishing will not be too good until the bass are finished spawning in about two weeks.

It is interesting to watch fish guard their nests and fan them with their tails as they are spawning.

Talk a walk along Beaver Creek this time of year and you cannot miss seeing some of the nests in the shallows.

The fish fan the nests with their tails to keep silt from settling on the eggs. Bass and little bluegills will chase any thing that comes near the nests.

Sometimes bass will hit lures that are pulled near the nests, although I have seen them dart out, take a lure or bait in their mouths, swim away from the nest and drop it.

I don't advocate fishing over or near spawning areas. Although Ohio has liberalized fishing the year round, it never seemed very sporting to me to deliberately fish over nests, teasing a fish until it struck the lure.

WILD ANIMAL ORPHANS are extremely rare and both Ohio and Pennsylvania officials urge persons to leave baby animals in their natural surroundings.

Many small animals are picked up and taken home by persons intending to raise them as house pets.

The sad thing about such abductions is that the mother is probably standing close by, waiting for the intruders to leave. They seldom expose themselves even when their young are being kidnapped.

Residents are reminded that it is illegal to have any kind of game animal or bird in their possession. In Ohio you can take small animals during open season, but raising young wildlife is difficult and demanding. Many die from improper diet. Those that survive often turn on humans when they reach maturity.

Usually the call of nature is strong and they will return to the wild when they get the chance to escape.

Adopting wildlife is punishable by a maximum fine of $200 and costs for each offense.

Save yourself time, trouble and money and get a dog or cat.

You And The Law

The purchase of a home is usually the largest single business transaction the average person ever makes. The amount of money involved makes it particularly important that the buyer be certain he knows exactly what sort of a transaction he has before him.

No matter how entranced you may be with that "swell looking ranch house on the other side of town," it will pay off in the long run if you get answers to the following questions before signing any papers:

- 1.—How much is the house to cost?
- 2.—Exactly what property, real and personal, is included?
- 3.—Is it mortgage or land contract financing?
- 4.—What are to be the terms of payment?
- 5.—Is the seller to furnish a "marketable" title?
- 6.—What kind of deed must the seller give?
- 7.—Who furnishes a title guarantee and fee policy, and who will pay for its abstract or attorney's opinion?
- 8.—Have the utilities and improvements been installed and paid for?
- 9.—Are there unpaid real estate taxes or special assessments, and who pays for them?
- 10.—Are the improvements actually located on the lot and do they conform under zoning regulations?
- 11.—How much insurance is in force and how is it to be pro-rated?
- 12.—When is the purchaser to have possession?

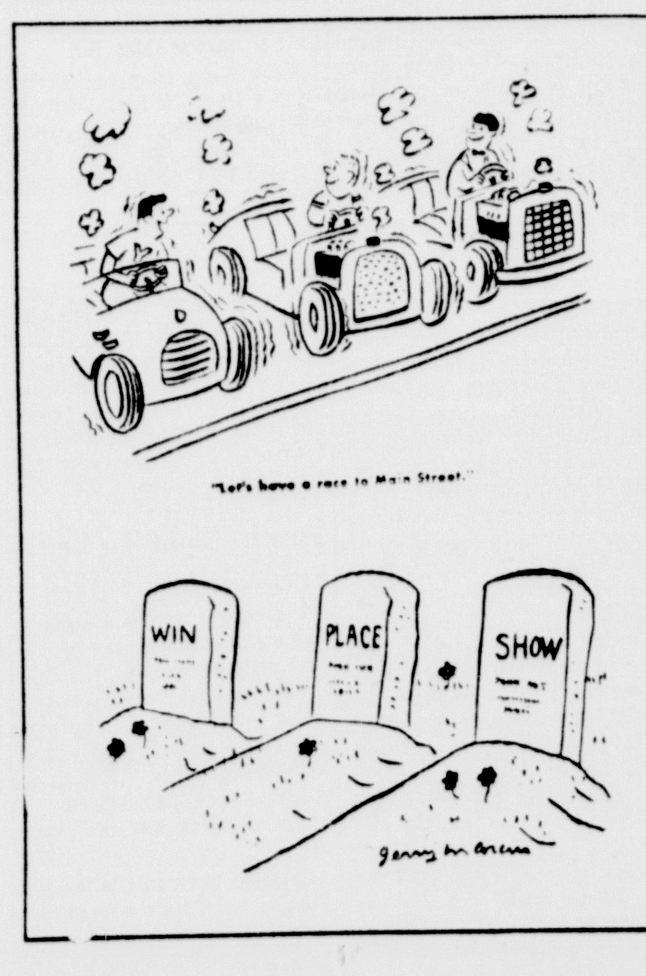

13.—How and when must the offer be accepted?

USUALLY THE first step in buying a home is the making of an offer to purchase. Upon acceptance of the offer a contract is created. Too few people realize the extreme importance of the offer to purchase. It is not just a way of stalling off other buyers. It should include all terms of the sale.

Making the offer is the most important step in the purchase. The buyer should discuss all matters with his own attorney. Many a buyer has signed away his rights in an offer to purchase before ever consulting his attorney. Then it is too late to rescind the bargain or correct a misunderstanding.

Similarly, the seller should discuss with his attorney any offer received before acceptance. After acceptance of an offer by the seller, the terms of the contract are fixed and cannot be altered except with the other parties consent.

Smoking It Up

An East Liverpool airman has carved out a new career for himself as a disc jockey on an Armed Forces Radio Station on Guam, but he will give it up within a few days to head Stateside after an 18-month tour of duty.

Airman 2C Robert L. Nentwick is known as "Bashful B" on the program he beams to service personnel and civilians daily, specializing in rock and roll tunes. He is shown standing as he explains the operation of the radio station's console to Airman 2C Larry Allen.

Nentwick is the husband of Mrs. Carolyn Wilson Nentwick of Boring Ln., Fisher Park, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Nentwick of 1031 Edgewood Ave.

When he returns to East Liverpool, he will have his first look at his 10-month-old son, Craig Robert, born Sept. 3. His wife and son reside with her mother, Mrs. Pauline Wilson.

Nentwick's full-time military duty is as a personnel specialist, but he works regularly at the radio station in his off-duty time. He has been overseas since December, 1964.

Nentwick serves with the 27th Communications Squadron. Broadcasting on 1690 kilocycles, the station carries news and special events in addition to music. It is manned throughout—from station manager to janitor—by armed forces personnel.

Nentwick was stationed at Dow Air Force Base at Bangor, Maine, before going overseas. He had no prior experience in radio work, but was schooled in the specialty on Guam by the Air Force. He may follow radio work when he returns to civilian life. He is scheduled to leave Guam about June 1 to return to the States.

The Lighter Side

NEWTON MINOW must smile in smug satisfaction everytime Batman and Robin cavert across the TV screen.

If television was a "vast wasteland" three years ago when he bowed out as chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, what epithet would he apply to the medium today?

Minow jostled bravely with the three big networks, accusing them of pandering to the low tastes of a small minority of viewers. The network presidents rumbled reassuringly, a few "quality" programs were hurriedly jammed into the schedule in evening prime time and then everyone concerned sat back to wait and see.

Lacking support from the White House, Minow quietly departed to private life to allow someone else to take over the Don Quixote role.

It has all been downhill since. In the early days of the medium back in 1948-49—before the national networks were strung together—the newspaper critics blamed the poor quality of the programming on inexperience and lack of capital.

WAIT TILL THE coaxial cable tied the stations together from coast-to-coast, they promised. Then the millennium would arrive and TV would become the eighth wonder of the world.

That message was dinned into the public's ears for so long that the progress of the cable construction was followed as closely as the work on the first transcontinental railroad nearly 100 years earlier. It was tantamount to the Second Coming, the critics said.

And what did it produce? Boston Blackie, an early-day Batman; Milton Berle and his nauseous gags and routines; travelogues left over from World War I; and a particularly offensive offering, "You Asked for It," that hung on for years and probably still is going through rerun cycles in Alaska and New Zealand.

At the advent of every new season, the networks have trumpeted that this is the year for culture, drama, uplift, education and great music. So far, they have been wrong on every count.

Like the drum-beating of the old-time circus advance man, the networks' claims now are greeted with derision and unabashed disbelief by the bulk of the American public.

Any industry that can talk culture and at the same time produce things like "Lost in Space," "My Mother the Car" and "Beverly Hillsbillies" suffers from an acute case of schizophrenia that calls for surgery, not medication.

STRANGELY ENOUGH, the quality of the commercials has improved in some instances while the programming has been descending into untraveled depths. Perhaps the Madison Ave. boys feel that as the quality of the shows descends, the general tone of the commercials must be improved to offer sufficient contrast.

Not that the flacks have gone highbrow. For instance, the nasograph is still extant in all its pseudo-scientific glory, and a glass contrivance resembling the Iron Maiden of the Inquisition is used to demonstrate the relative merits of three stomach remedies.

Hardly on a par with Shakespeare! But seen in the context of Batman and his contemporaries, not bad either.

Reflection leads to the conclusion that today's network television is not as bad as the pre-network days, when all the world was new and Channel 2 was WDTV.

It's worse.

One woman commenting on the relative intelligence of her dog was moved to comment that the animal could not be so dumb, after all. The dog and the family cat did not watch television, she pointed out, which put them one cut above a lot of humans.

But the dog and cat do listen to radio, now that the soap operas have deserted to television, and they find the newspaper useful regularly, she said without explaining fully.

THERE'S A solution to this television problem that so far has escaped the FCC, despite all its wide-eyed concern.

Stamps In The News

An Associated Press News-photo has been immortalized on a Congolese postage stamp.

The new 15 - franc (10c) stamp was issued in Leopoldville May 1. It shows a profile of President Joseph D. Mobutu. It is the first stamp depicting the new President since he took over in a military coup last November.

At the side of the stamp is a small figure rolling up his right sleeve with his left hand. He stands in front of a large group of men, also rolling up their sleeves.

George Finkelstein, cabinet chief of the Congolese Postal Ministry, says that the figure is not Gen. Mobutu, but the stamp's designer, Rodolphe T'Scharner of Brussels, acknowledged that an AP photo of the general was used in the design.

The picture was taken by The AP Dec. 12 while Gen. Mobutu addressed a crowd at Baudouin Stadium.

Near the end of his speech the President exhorted the Congolese to "roll up our sleeves and get to work."

As he said that he reached his left hand to his right cuff and rolled up his sleeve. The cabinet ministers behind him did likewise.

The AP shot the picture, and the sleeve roller, although a civilian on the stamp, is based on Gen. Mobutu, right to the last turn of the cloth.

CANADA HAS issued a new 5-cent stamp in support of its national campaign to reduce traffic accidents. The design features signs and symbols in blue and yellow on a black background. The Canadian postmaster general announced that this stamp is the first to use a new type of gum on the back which is tasteless, virtually invisible and with better adhesive qualities than previous Canadian stamps.

LIBERIA HAS issued three new stamps to honor Sir Winston Churchill. The values are 15, 20 and 25 cents. The main designs feature portraits of Sir Winston in various and familiar war-time poses. One of these poses shows the famous "V for Victory" sign of the Prime Minister. A souvenir sheet bearing a 50 - cent airmail stamp also was issued on the same date.

READERS OF this column who are interested in obtaining any of the stamps mentioned may go to their local stamp dealer or department store having a philatelic department. First - day covers are usually not obtainable at overseas posts so it is advised to get your foreign covers and stamps from a nearby location.

CATV Official Reports $500,000 Investment

CATV of Ohio Valley, Inc., will have an investment of approximately $500,000 when it completes installation of a 12-channel community antenna television system, John B. Hales, systems manager, told the Lions Club Friday afternoon at the Travelers Hotel.

Some 210 subscribers already are receiving pictures over the new system and more than 2,500 in East Liverpool and Wells-ville have signed up, Hales said.

ELECTRONIC equipment in the control room at the tower on Pleasant Heights represents a cost of $27,000, he pointed out. The location is 1,230 feet above sea level and the tower is 80 feet above ground, with separate antennas for each channel.

Approximately 79 miles of aluminum cable will be strung on some 3,000 utility poles being leased from the Ohio Power Co. and the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., Hales continued.

One of the problems has been to meet the clearance standards between power and telephone lines set by the national electrical safety code. If there is not sufficient room, CATV must bear the cost of replacing the pole, he said.

Because of a recent Federal Communications Commission ruling, CATV is not permitted to pick up Channels 5 and 8 in Cleveland, Hales explained, although it is permitted to carry Channel 3.

COMMUNITY antenna systems are required to carry channels whose antenna radiation falls in prescribed areas. Both Channels 5 and 8 fall outside the area which CATV is permitted to pick up.

To replace the two channels, Channel 5 will carry a weather station where up-to-the-minute information can be obtained and Channel 8 will handle Channel 16, a new educational television station.

Channels 6, 10 and 12 will carry three Youngstown UHF stations, Hales continued. The other channels which will be picked up are 2, 4, 7, 9, 11 and 13.

Hales was introduced by his father, George Hales, program chairman. Edward Custer, president, presided.

The affair will be held at the high school next Friday.

Stan Scott of WSTV Steubenville, will be the disc jockey. Prizes will be awarded.

Lisbon Plans

Pool Opening

LISBON — Water will be turned on today at Sadie P. Van Fossan Memorial Swimming Pool which will open Wednesday.

Don McClintock, chairman of the pool commission, said Miss Linda Neill, a junior at Capital University at Columbus, will return as pool manager and lifeguard.

Miss Jodine Pilmer, a freshman at Westminster College at New Wilmington, Pa., has been hired as a second lifeguard, and Miss Dawn Richardson and Miss Patty Garick, David Anderson High School juniors, as ticket takers and basket girls.

Pool hours will be 1 to 8 p.m. daily with mornings devoted to swimming lessons.

McClintock said the instructors will be the two guards assisted by his son, Gregg, 15, a member of the Neptune Swimming Club at the Youngstown YMCA. Gregg is donating his services. Anyone interested in lessons may register with Miss Neill. The fee is 25 cents per lesson.

McClintock said the pool is available for evening parties on a rental basis.

The advance sale of season tickets will continue until June 12 at Morgan's and Hamilton's Drug Stores and at the pool after it opens. Advance rates are $18 for children under 15. After June 12, the family rate will be $20 and the other classifications will increase $1.

Individual tickets at the pool are 25 cents for children and 50 cents for adults.

Other members of the commission are Charles Pike, Clyde Pike representing Village Council, Adam Rudibaugh and Cecil Rauch. The commission said the Rotary Club helped get the pool ready by cleaning the bathhouse and doing necessary painting.

Arizona May Keep Loyalty Oath As Law

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The Arizona Supreme Court has ruled the state's loyalty oath will remain in effect despite a ruling by the U.S. Supreme Court that it is unconstitutional.

The decision was in a three paragraph order signed by Chief Justice Fred C. Struckmeyer Jr. Friday.

Referring to the April 18 decision of the U.S. Supreme Court, written by Justice William O. Douglas, Struckmeyer said, "It was difficult to understand exactly what he said."

The U.S. Supreme Court ruled 5-4 in favor of Barbara Elfrandt, 32, a Tucson school teacher, who with her husband, Vernon, had taught without pay since 1962 after refusing to sign the oath.

Struckmeyer's ruling said Mrs. Elfrandt must take the oath before she can collect the back pay with interest.

The penalty clause in a 1961 law setting up the oath is declared unconstitutional, Struckmeyer said. The clause makes it a felony to take the oath and remain a member of an organization advocating forcible overthrow of the state government.

William Eubank, chief deputy attorney general, said the decision of the state court leaves the loyalty oath in effect, but without a penalty.

A state official noted that although the penalty clause has been stricken, school districts and state agencies may still dismiss an employee who refuses to take the oath.

Mrs. Elfrandt could not be reached for comment but her husband said he doesn't expect any difficulty collecting the back pay despite the state court's ruling.

He said he and his wife objected to the penalty portion of the law and since it has been knocked out, they will probably sign a statement to support the Constitution and the state.

Poverty Grant OK'd For Steubenville Area

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Five more federal antipoverty grants for Ohio have been approved. They will finance projects in the Steubenville, Hamilton, Massillon, Portsmouth and Wooster areas.

Mingo Junction's Board of Education will receive $54,330 for operation of a Neighborhood Youth Corps program this summer in the Steubenville area.

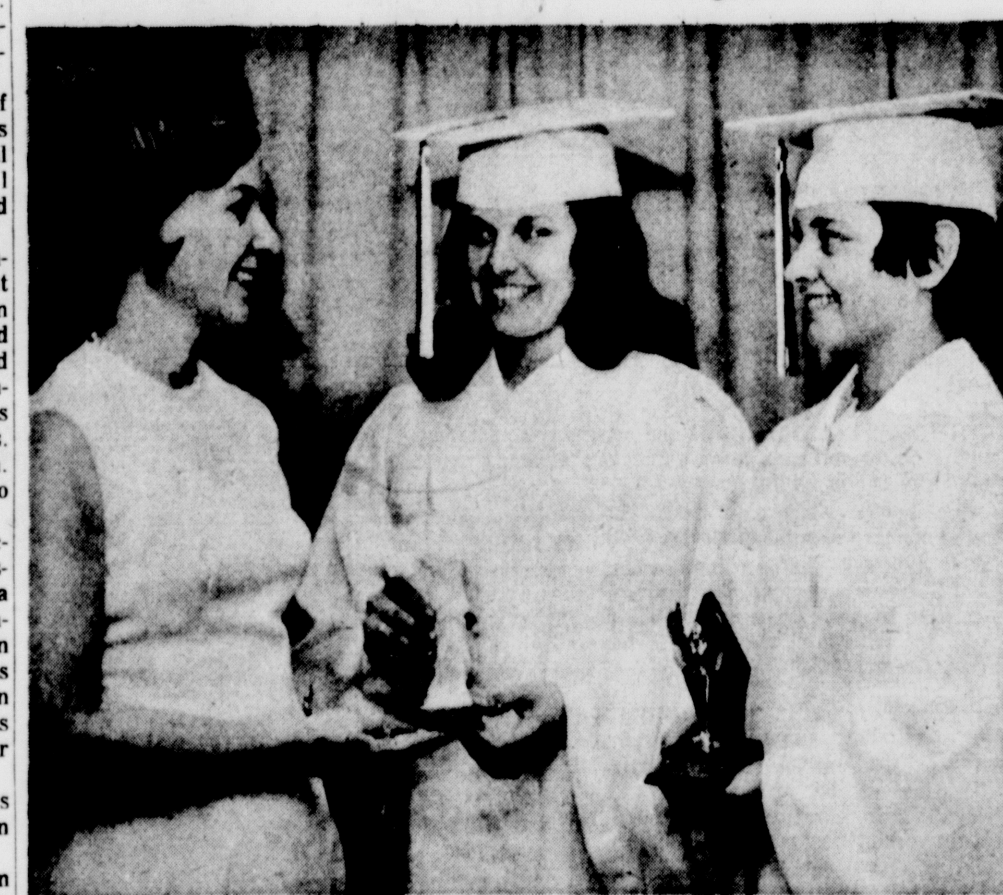

Work-training projects will be schools in Hamilton with a $42,490 grant and in Massillon under a $35,800 grant to city schools.

Portsmouth received $22,500 for a training project in city parks, and the Ashland-Wayne County Community Action Commission of Wooster got $30,595 to develop an antipoverty study program.

Pets in the United States include an estimated 25 million cats, 24½ million dogs, 20 million parakeets and canaries and other winged pets.

'Nike Of The Year'

Girls Honored By BPW

Miss Sally Anderson was presented a trophy as "Nike of the Year" and Miss Erin McCormack received an award as runnerup from the Business & Professional Women's Club during the annual senior assembly Friday afternoon in Memorial Auditorium.

Mrs. James G. McKinnon, chairman of the sponsoring committee and immediate past president of BPW, is shown presenting the trophy to Miss Anderson as Miss McCormack looks on.

Mrs. Thomas S. Anderson of 130 Haywood St., Miss Anderson plans to be a secretary. She was recording secretary of the Nike Club, treasurer of the Business Club and a member of the Inter - Club Council. She was enrolled in the commercial course.

The daughter of Mr. and Miss McCormack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCormack of 329 W. 6th St., served as hospitality chairman of the club. She also was a member of the Forum, Journalism and Boosters Clubs and a member of the Keramos yearbook staff.

She plans to attend Pitt Technical Institute. The award is earned on a "point merit" system in which an established number of points is received for activities of the club and the BPW in which they participated.

Besides Mrs. McKinnon, other members of the sponsoring committee are Mrs. George McCullough, Mrs. Ethel Harvey, Mrs. Richard Springer, Mrs. Robert Blatchford, Mrs. Al Dunn and Miss Darlene Taylor.

Camp Fire Girls Council Sponsors Recognition Tea

hospital aide and program aide at the Elkton School.

Advance reports on the District Horizon Club conference set for Aug. 15-17 at Salem and the regional conference Oct. 14-16 at Cleveland were given by Mrs. Dan Henderson, administrative secretary.

A vote of appreciation was extended to the Horizon Club and Junior Hi Girls who assisted with the recent Music Day held at Echo Dell Camp when more than 200 Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls were present.

It was announced that Horizon Club 19 and their adviser, Mrs. Charles Keuper, will conduct a week of group camping June 13-19 at Echo Dell. A council fire will conclude the session.

Betsy Welker of Junior Hi Group 39 conducted the ceremony for the extinguishing of the Wohelo candles.

A communication was read from Mrs. J. Donald Thompson. Refreshments were served at a buffet table featuring an arrangement of miniature Indian tepee candles.

Mrs. John Stoy, Horizon Club coordinator, was in charge of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Donald Arrington and Mrs. Henderson.

Buses Checked In Industry Area

Pennsylvania State Police have issued warnings to two school bus drivers servicing industry to repair faulty turn signals on their buses.

The turn signal violations were discovered in a check of 16 buses this week following a complaint by Mayor Steven Suchanec of Industry.

Police at the Chippewa Baracks reported they checked 10 buses Wednesday, the day of the complaint, and six buses Thursday.

Suchanec charged some of the buses had faulty mufflers and tailpipes that allowed exhaust fumes to leak into the buses.

He reported that he and a borough patrolman had checked three buses and had found split mufflers.

Several parents had complained to the mayor relative to the situation.

Fair Closes Tonight With Queen Crowning The annual three - day fair sponsored by the Beaver Local Boosters Club will close tonight with the crowning of the queen at 10 at Beaver Local Public School.

The fair will open at 5 p.m. Features include rides, concession stands and a bake goods booth.

Jim Burcham is chairman. In the U.S. embassy building in Mexico City, there is space for 500 employees who, in the event of an earthquake, will rock gently on a 30-foot-deep mud and water float beneath the building.

A favorite target was President Roosevelt. Father Coughlin had been a supporter of the early New Deal, but he was an isolationist, and as Europe moved toward World War II he broke with the president over foreign policy.

Distribution Set On Surplus Food

The Columbiana County Department of Welfare today announced dates for the distribution of surplus food during June.

The schedule follows: June 13, East Liverpool; June 14, East Palestine; June 15, Salem; June 16, Wellsville, and June 17, Lisbon. The hours are from 9 a. m. to noon.

Eligible are public assistance cases, city relief, Soldiers & Sailors Relief, Aid for the Aged, and all persons on surplus application.

During May, a total of 1,843 received the commodities. There were 2,050 certified. Distributed during May were milk, rice, flour, wheat, beans, lard, butter, beef, peanut butter and raisins.

Africa covers an area of 11.5 million square miles, 20.4 per cent of the world. It has a population of 306.2 million, 10.7 per cent of the world.

Russia Plans

Farm Growth Record Camp Registration

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet people got their first look today at an ambitious new 10-year program designed to create millions of new acres of farmland and put more food on Russian tables.

The program was approved Friday after a secret three-day meeting of the Central Committee of the Soviet Communist party.

The new plan is designed to produce larger staple crops which could eventually mean the Russians will no longer have to make huge wheat purchases in the West.

The program calls for irrigating millions of acres of dry land, draining vast areas of water-logged soil and improving equipment and techniques on existing farms.

Figures released in the press today showed that newly drained lands are expected to produce 8 million tons of wheat, 20 million tons of milk, more than a million tons of meat and "considerably more" vegetables over the next five years.

The bill for the land reclamation program alone has been estimated at $16.5 billion.

LISBON — Columbiana Council, Boy Scouts of America, reports the largest pre - camp registration in history for Camp Twin Spruce at Leesville Lake.

Thirty - six troops have signed up for one week of camping beginning Sunday, June 26. The camping season will run for six weeks.

The council has designated Saturday and Sunday, June 18-19, as "Good Turn Weekend" and invites leaders and volunteers to help get the grounds and buildings ready.

The annual meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, June 16, at the Old Stone House at the McKinley Scout Reservation on the Logtown Rd. north of Lisbon. A fellowship hour will begin at 5:30 and a buffet-style supper will be served at 6:30.

The May issue of "The Pack-et," the council's information sheet published at headquarters in Lisbon, notes the Columbiana County Stamp Club is using a picture of the Stone House on a cachet and sending the envelopes to collectors all over the U.S. Orders may be placed with Baird Stewart of 321 W. Martin St., East Palestine, at 15 cents for singles and two for a quarter.

Probe Opens In Crash Of French Jets

HUELVA, Spain (AP) — The crash of six French jet fighters in southwestern Spain Friday touched off an immediate investigation by Spanish and French officials.

All six pilots parachuted to safety before their Mystere IV planes crashed in a swampy pasture area near this Atlantic port 280 miles southwest of Madrid, authorities said.

French consular officials in Sevilla, the intended destination of the 560-mile training flight from Bordeaux, France, said none of the pilots was seriously hurt and they would be returned today to their French base.

The French Defense Ministry said the unarmored $600,000 jets became lost in flight "for an undetermined reason" and had not been able to land at Sevilla, probably because of bad weather. They crashed later due to lack of fuel, the ministry said.

One pilot, Capt. Bertrand Olivier, 27, said the men lost their way because of cloudy skies over Sevilla Province and lost radio contact with San Pablo airport at Sevilla, less than 25 miles away.

Investigators were expected to ask why the pilots abandoned their planes near Huelva, 50 miles west of Sevilla, instead of trying to land at two well-equipped airports not far away: the U.S.-Spanish base at Moron, 35 miles southeast of Sevilla, or the U.S.-Spanish base at Rota, on the Atlantic 55 miles southwest of Sevilla.

Nelsen had been around Battle Mountain six to eight months, mostly working as a cook. Maestretti said he did not check references when Nelsen applied for the deputy's job.

"We desperately needed help," he said.

Battle Mountain, a town of 2,000 in northern Nevada, is enjoying a copper mining boom and is jammed with newcomers.

coiless rifles, 17,000 rounds of ammunition, 18,000 pounds of salt, 1,200 pounds of rice and a large quantity of medical supplies.

—The U.S. 25th Infantry Division ended a 12-day sweep of jungles 35 miles northwest of Saigon called Operation Whia-wa. The infantrymen reported killing 157 Viet Cong in the operation and capturing 10 while sustaining light casualties themselves.

Because of the continuing monsoon storms, the U.S. air offensive over North Viet Nam Friday dropped to its lowest point in recent weeks. The Air Force flew only two missions. Returning pilots reported they destroyed or damaged a barge and a bridge 25 miles north and west of coastal Dong Hoi.

Navy fliers from the aircraft carrier Hancock flew only eight missions Friday, also striking in the Dong Hoi area. Pilots claimed they destroyed or damaged 15 junks and barges, 13 railroad cars, several sections of rail line and a ferry slip.

On the ground, two battalions of Viet Cong or about 600 men, attacked a Vietnamese militia camp 25 miles west of Saigon Friday night. They were beaten back by the Vietnamese defenders reinforced by 40 American "Green Berets," the elite Special Forces soldiers.

Youths Told To Leave Fredericktown Area A group of youths reportedly causing a general disturbance was ordered out of the Fredericktown area Friday evening.

The Columbiana County sheriff's office said it received an anonymous call at 7:23 that the youths "were parking cars on lawns, drinking and creating a noise."

Deputies were sent to the area and the youths were ordered to leave. No further disturbances were reported last night.

Retiring Teacher Honored, Officers Installed For PTA

Miss Esther Alice McLeavy was honored when the Midland 1st St. School Parent - Teacher Association met Thursday.

Miss McLeavy, who has announced her retirement, has served 22 years as a teacher at the school.

She was presented a $50 savings bond and a corsage of carnations from the PTA. A tribute to her years of service was prepared and given by Mrs. Aaron Golding, president. A cake was described to her with "Good luck and best wishes, Miss McLeavy, in future years." Her favorite flowers, lilies, were centerpieces.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Helen Bradford, second-grade teacher. Mrs. Irene Steinacker, third-grade teacher, led the salute to the flag and the singing of "America."

Jeffrey Melvin, Milan Stojanovich, John Corak, James Lenov, and Sam Vujnovich, patrol boys, were awarded service pins by Mrs. Steinacker.

Sam Morrow, Jan Samuels, Dan Baich and Theresa Lona, speech students at Lincoln High School, held a panel discussion on "Systems of Grading."

A question-and-answer period followed.

Mrs. Chester Brennenman, second vice president of the Beaver County Council of PTA, installed the new officers and presented each with a diploma outlining her duties.

Installed were Mrs. Aaron Golding, president; Mrs. William Cornwell, vice president; Mrs. William Hulme, secretary; Mrs. Joseph Coratto, treasurer, and Mrs. Lorenzo McCauley, historian.

Letters were read from students thanking the PTA for recent field trips to Pittsburgh. Mrs. Rebecca Shinaberry, afternoon kindergarten teacher, received the attendance banner.

Punch was served by Mrs. Cecil Murphy and Mrs. John Cerasi.

An executive board planning meeting will be held in August.

Boy, 11, Faces Murder Charge In Girl's Assault

PITTSBURGH (AP) — An 11-year-old suburban Pittsburgh boy was in police custody today in connection with the strangulation-rape of a four-year-old girl.

Bruce Kelly of Braddock was arrested Friday night, a few hours after the nude body of little Cassandra Scott was found on a wooded hillside near a playground in her neighborhood.

He was scheduled for an arraignment today before the Allegheny County coroner on a charge of murder.

Lt. Joseph Stark of the county detective bureau announced Kelly's arrest.

Stark said Cassandra was left in the care of a baby sitter while her mother, Mrs. Beatrice Scott, went shopping. The sitter let the girl go outside to play.

Stark said Kelly lured the girl from the playground to a wooded area. Kelly told detectives that when the girl resisted him he strangled her with a red and white shoelace, Stark said.

Lake Claims Boy, 17, Absent From School

PINE GROVE, Pa. (AP) — Dale Krammes, 17, only a few days away from graduation at Schuylkill Haven Union High School in Schuylkill County, decided to "play hookey" from school Friday with three classmates—a decision that ended in tragedy. Krammes drowned in Sweet Arrow Lake in about 20 feet of water when, his friends said, he became exhausted trying to swim across the 200-yard pond.

Deaths and Funerals

W. A. McGonigal

W. A. (Mac) McGonigal, 78, of 231 1/2 W. Summit Ln., a mold-maker at the Hall China Co., died this morning at 12:15 at City Hospital shortly after being admitted. He had taken ill earlier at home. He last worked on Thursday.

Mr. McGonigal was born in Peoria, Ill., May 28, 1888, a son of James McGonigal and Angeline Buxton McGonigal. He had resided in the vicinity virtually his lifetime. He was a member of the First Methodist Church, Moose Lodge 122 and the IBOP.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ross (Ruth) Carroll of East Liverpool; a brother, Paul D. McGonigal of Mancy, N. J.; two step-daughters, Mrs. Helen Menough and Mrs. Alice Anderson, both of East Liverpool; nine grandchildren, and 26 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. Allen R. Conway. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday and Monday.

Joseph Coughlin

Word has been received of the death in Youngstown of Joseph A. Coughlin, 68, former Midland councilman and a former employee of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

Mr. Coughlin worked in the open hearth from 1929 until 1948.

He was a member of the Presentation Catholic Church and Knights of Columbus Council 2005.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret Coughlin of Youngstown, and seven sons and five daughters, Joseph of Ohioville, Thomas of Palm Bay, Fla., Robert of Burlington, Vt., the Rev. M. Mark of the Trappist Order OCSA at Monk's Corner, S. C., Army Maj. Charles, stationed at Alfred University, Alfred, N. Y., John and William of Youngstown, Mrs. Charles Lucas of Boston, Mrs. John Daniels of Worth, Ill., Mrs. R. D. Honacker of Midland Heights and Sister Mary Kevin and Sister Mary St. Patrick with the Sisters of Notre Dame in Cleveland.

John Zuppe

Services for John Christopher Zuppe, 12-day-old son of John Zuppe and Carol Ann Clark Zuppe, were to be held this afternoon at 3 p. m. at the Schwerha Funeral Home in Midland. Fr. Stephen Burdis of the Midland Presentation Catholic Church was to officiate. Burial was in Beaver Cemetery.

The infant died of complications Friday afternoon at the home. He was born May 15 at Rochester General Hospital.

In addition to the parents, he is survived by a sister, Lisa Zuppe, at home; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Zuppe, and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Clark, all of Midland.

Ernest Badgley

Services for Ernest Luther Badgley, who died Friday morning in the County Home at Lisbon, will be held Sunday at 3 p. m. at the MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville. The Rev. Robert E. Andrews of the Wellsville First Christian Church will officiate. Burial will be in Springhill Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon and tonight.

Richard Albert

Services for Richard Bruce Albert, who drowned while swimming in a pond north of Weirton Thursday, will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. in the Steel & Wolfe Funeral Home in Weirton. The Rev. Harry Light will officiate. Burial will follow in Franklin Cemetery, Wellsburg.

Richard was born in Steubenville Feb. 1, 1951, a son of George P. Albert and Virginia Postlethwaite Albert of 3699 Pennsylvania Ave., Weirton. He was a freshman at Weirton Junior High School and a member of the Weirton Christ Methodist Church.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by two brothers, Paul Albert and David Albert, both at home; the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Postlethwaite of Wellsburg, and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Clemence Albert of Weirton.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p. m. today.

Mrs. Bessie Bergner

Mrs. Bessie L. Bergner, 81, widow of William Bergner, died Friday at 8 p. m. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John (Virginia) Garner of the Calcutta - Smiths Ferry Rd., after a week's illness.

Mrs. Bergner was born near Cameron, W. Va., Jan. 15, 1885, a daughter of the late William Meighan and Catherine Braden Meighan. She had resided in this vicinity for 25 years. Her husband died May 18.

In addition to her daughter, she leaves two sons, Harold Bergner of Lutherville, Md., and Ralph Bergner of La Crescenta, Calif., two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The Martin Funeral Home is arranging services.

Appeal Eyed In Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas' anti-evolution law has been struck down on grounds it restricts freedom of learning and teaching, but the state plans to appeal the ruling to the State Supreme Court.

Chancery Court Judge Murray Reed held Friday the 1928 law was an unconstitutional restriction on the quest for knowledge. Reed's action cleared the way for legally teaching Charles Darwin's famous theory of evolution in public school classrooms.

Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, defending the law as a bastion against what he called growing godlessness, said he would appeal Reed's ruling to the State Supreme Court, and, if necessary, to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Susan Epperson, 24, a biology teacher at Little Rock Central High School, started the court test earlier this year with a suit challenging the constitutionality of the law, which was adopted at a statewide election in 1928.

Mrs. Epperson, said, "It sounds very good and I'm very happy about it."

She, too, is prepared to continue the fight, if necessary, even though she is leaving Little Rock to continue her education with her husband, Jon, at the University of Missouri.

If the ruling stands, Tennessee and Mississippi alone will have the nation's two remaining so-called "monkey" laws.

Reed voided the law because, he said, it restricts "freedom to learn and the freedom to teach."

Mother Cat Conducts

Own Play Production

MOUNT HOPE, Kan. — For several consecutive years, Mrs. Irma Herrin's cat, Miss Fit, has celebrated opening night of an annual high school play Mrs. Herrin directs by delivering a litter of kittens on opening night.

This year, there was no outward sign of a repeat performance but the cat apparently had been rehearsing backstage.

After opening night Mrs. Herrin found the cat had given birth to three very small kittens.

Pistol Seller Offers

Wrong Gun To Police

MELBOURNE — Norman Charles Field, 41, strolled into a yard and offered to sell a man an antique flintlock pistol.

"Could you use one of these for your stage productions?" asked Field.

Youth Detained For A Day Following Motorbike Case

A 17-year-old East Liverpool High School student was scheduled to be released from the juvenile detention room at the County Jail late this afternoon after serving one day for attempting to ride a motorbike into the Birch Confectionery adjoining the school.

A 13-year-old Lisbon St. youth was placed on probation for the balance of the year on a theft charge at a hearing this morning before Juvenile Officer James Miller at City Hall.

The detention was handed the high school student Friday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin. Miller said.

The youth also must apologize to Patrolman William Devon at the school for remarks he made to the officer when he investigated the complaint, Miller said.

The Lisbon St. youth was placed on a 7 p. m. curfew for 90 days and a 9 p. m. curfew for the balance of the year for the theft of $3 from the home of Mrs. Joan Weber, 914 Alton St., on Thursday afternoon.

The youth also must apologize to Mrs. Weber and earn $3 within the week and repay the woman.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Did you know that small, inexpensive, plastic foam ice buckets are excellent for keeping hot rolls, biscuits or corn muffins piping hot during the meal?

Just use your ice pick to punch several holes in the lid for the steam to escape!

I place a cloth or a paper napkin in the bottom.

That's all there is to it.

MARGARET W. SMITH

Heavens no, I didn't know, but after testing it I think it's wonderful.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Nylon net serves again!

Our black cat travels in the car with us during the summer and on our vacation, too.

The children were quite concerned about how we could make him comfortable while riding in the car.

So, I gathered a piece of nylon net onto quarter-inch elastic and fitted the net over the cat's bed (a large plastic clothes basket).

This enabled him to see and breathe freely, yet confined him to his allotted space in the car.

He is a good traveler, and feels so secure that he sleeps a lot. Naturally, every time we stop or he gets restless, we remove the net and let him exercise.

And the children are happy to have their pet with them.

GRACE.

Letter Of Laughter

DEAR HELOISE: A "vacant" baby crib makes a wonderful catchall for clothes that need ironing, or for extra quilts.

Better hang onto the crib if you have room—so they say—you might have another little "loud-speaker" to put in it!

MRS. OWEN HULET.

DEAR HELOISE: Empty milk cartons temporarily hold the leftover coffee, pan soaking water and other liquids you forgot to throw out before running dish water into your single sink.

MABEL SHEPPARD.

DEAR HELOISE: This hint is for "sun worshippers".

We usually start getting our tan in May and get darker and darker; then towards summer's end, we gradually get lighter and lighter again.

Our winter liquid foundation is much too light for summer, and our suntan shade too dark when the tan begins to fade.

I buy one of those little plastic bottles in the dime store and pour some of my winter foundation shade in it. As my tan increases, I add more and more of my sun tan shade to it. Finally I'm using the suntan shade "straight".

Then as my tan fades, I do the reverse—add my winter light shade to the suntan shade.

It sure beats buying three or four different shades of makeup!

E. NOONAN.

DEAR HELOISE: When a recipe calls for a teaspoonful of vanilla, I never even bother to measure.

I just use the cap off the bottle itself.

Do you know the cap on a big bottle of vanilla measures exactly one teaspoon, and the small bottle cap measures one-half teaspoon?

MARY McWEN.

No, I didn't! But I measured, and you are exactly right.

This should also be good for measuring many of our flavorings.

Saves washing another spoon eh?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: While taking my coffee break this morning—and staring at the cereal package left on the table since breakfast—I hit upon this idea.

Cut out all the games and toys that are printed free on cereal boxes. Make a collection of them to be used by visiting "little ones" and for your own child when he is old enough.

Mine is three months old now, and my collection has just begun!

YOUNG MOTHER.

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Nagging Only Increases Nailbiting

There are many nailbiting children, even some nailbiting adults. I don't know the figures, but my guess is that nailbiting and other nervous habits are on the increase. Among other nervous habits are pulling at the hair, fingering about the face and repetitive movements of like a nature.

Dr. Garry Myers such as repeated blinking, facial grimaces, sometimes called tic or habit spasms. The normal approach by parents to these problems is to try to make the child stop them; and the harder they try as a rule, the worse they get.

The usual advice by experts is to ignore them and to consider them only as symptoms of a larger problem of nervous or emotional tension or excitement.

IT'S NOT easy for the parent to ignore nailbiting and similar nervous disorders, even when urged by the physician to do so. One mother, for example, writing of her daughter with facial grimaces said, "I try to ignore them but they look so awful that I can't." Often, indeed, the tensions of the mother may be more severe than that of the "afflicted" child.

Some mothers who are able to quit telling the child, "Don't bite your nails, or don't make those ugly faces," still is not ignoring such. She may not be able to keep her eyes from the youngster's fingers or face. Even if she can do that, she may be unable to keep her insides from stirring.

A mother succeeds in ignoring the matter only when she is able to feel no immediate concern about it, but can center her attention on a long-time (many months) constructive program for helping the child feel more calm and serene. To do so, she may need the help of the physician. She may need to work on a program of weeks and months to calm herself down, to move and act and speak more serenely.

IN HER long-time program a mother aims to provide the child with a calmer, less tense and exciting family atmosphere of understanding love and security; to protect the child from undue excitement and cultivate in her peace of mind, and a more wholesome outlet of interest and activity.

A grandmother writes from Indiana:

"My granddaughter, 10, is constantly biting off all her fingernails as long as there is any space where her tooth can hook behind to get a firm grip. I saw her have tape on them. Even while attending a sermon in church this does not stop."

"A doctor prescribed vitamin pills for her in the fall of the year, but that doesn't help at all as far as finger-chewing is concerned. At times she watches television until very late, likes to eat sweets, mustard on sandwiches, is not enthusiastic about vegetables.

"I bought some embroidery work for her to sew to keep hands busy and forget nailbiting but she has no liking for that. She told me she wants to be a teacher or airline stewardess."

My reply in part:

AS A GRANDPARENT you hardly can hope to advise that child's parents effectively. You might, however, by good example and quiet persuasion have a wholesome effect on them. Anything you can do to limit her TV viewing and her exposure to exciting programs of violence, and to establish her early bedtime hour should be good.

You might be able to read a great deal to this child and attract her to creative and non-exciting fun with other children of her age. The child's physician might guide you and the parents in a better program and family atmosphere for the child. I hope nobody nags at her about her nailbiting. Getting her interested in filling her fingernails neatly, even by a manicurist, might have a good effect; but she needs a long-time program of happy times and peace of mind in which she feels more understood and loved. Do encourage her in her hopes to be a teacher or airline stewardess.

My bulletins "The Nervous Jittery Mother" and "The Nervous Child" may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Reams Promised Humphrey's Help

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio's Democratic gubernatorial candidate, Frazier Reams Jr., has the promise of personal campaign help this fall from Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Humphrey said Friday after a meeting with the Ohioan, "We're offering Frazier whatever support we can give him."

The help will include an early fall trip to Ohio by Humphrey, the vice president said.

Reams' day in Washington also included stops at Democratic National Headquarters and talks with officials of the United Auto Workers and Steelworkers unions.

If you like mocha flavor in your confectioners sugar frosting, add coca and use strong hot coffee for the liquid.

Officials Praise Householders In Cleanup Efforts

Municipal officials today praised East Liverpool householders for their cooperation in the annual citywide spring cleanup campaign, which ended Friday.

Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey and Incinerator Supt. John Melvin said householders cooperated in virtually every instance, placing refuse at the curb or property line the night before a scheduled collection and utilizing sturdy containers that allowed crews to load the trash onto trucks quickly.

Melvin said the two-week campaign was aided perceptibly by the fact two open-bodied street department trucks were pressed into service in addition to his department's "packer body" vehicles. Use of the open trucks allowed the city to haul away especially bulky items such as discarded furniture that it could not handle in the past because of the limited loading capacity of the "packer" bodies, he said.

"The job went smoothly, thanks to the cooperation of the citizens and the efforts of the city employees," he said. "I think East Liverpool is a brighter, more attractive community as a result."

Holiday To Alter Refuse Pickups

Trash collections will be suspended Monday because of the Memorial Day holiday, but the route will be covered the following day, along with the usual Tuesday pickup. Incinerator Supt. John Melvin said today.

The Monday and Tuesday collections will be combined into a single pickup on Tuesday, but the balance of next week's refuse schedule will be followed as usual, he said. The Tuesday collection will cover these streets:

Smithfield St., Orchard Grove Ave., Princeton Ave., Columbia Ave., Oliver St., Fairmont St., Highland Colony, Gardendale, Maplewood to the city limits, Park Blvd., Beechwood, Armstrong Ln., Mayberry Ln., Hill Blvd., Manor Ln., Midway Ln., Cain St., St. Clair Ave., Fairview St., Division St., Hague Ave., Shadyside Ave., Church St., Denver St., Edwards Ave., Park Pl., Jethro, W. 8th St., Ridgeway Ave., Fenton St., Moore St., Claiborne St., May St., Florence St., John St., Burford St., Alton St. and California Hollow.

Man Climbs Span In New York As Labor Talk Move

NEW YORK (AP)—A man climbed 200 feet up the superstructure of the Queensboro Bridge today, cutting off traffic on the bridge's upper roadway for two hours. He told police he was attempting to force his employer to negotiate in a labor dispute.

The climber was identified by police as Ray Acevedo, 27, of Jamaica, Queens.

Four policemen brought Acevedo down after tying a life belt around him.

Taken into custody with Acevedo were Bob Pess, Ronald Senese and Gerald Maldonado, fellow workers of Acevedo who were employed as salesmen for the Homemakers League in Jamaica.

The firm was struck by the salesmen Wednesday in a demand for higher pay.

Acevedo was quoted as saying he climbed the bridge in an effort to get Roy Titus, the company's president, to the scene, so he would negotiate. The salesmen do not belong to a union.

All four men were booked on charges of disorderly conduct.

The lion is found in Africa, Southwest Asia, and West India.

The male is 8 to 10 feet long, weighs up to 500 pounds.

Robbers Hit 2 Stores At Columbus In Hour

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two Big Bear supermarkets were held up about an hour apart Friday, apparently by the same two men, police said.

Officials of the stores said no accurate estimates of the loot taken was expected until today.

Yesterday's Stars

PITCHING — Claude Osteen, Los Angeles, pitched a three-hitter as the Dodgers blanked the New York Mets 4-0.

BATTING — Andy Etchebarren, Baltimore, rapped three hits, drove in two runs — including the tie-breaker — and scored one in the Orioles' 4-2 victory over Kansas City.

Fight Results

MELBOURNE, Australia — Ray Perez, 118, Honolulu, outpointed Jerry Stokes, 119½, Louisville, Ky., 12.

LOS ANGELES — Jerry Quarry, 192, Bellflower, Calif., and Tony Alonti, 204, Paterson, N.J., drew 10. Zorita Gonzalez, 111, Tacuba, Mexico, outpointed Lachy Linares, 114, Puerto Rico, 10.

Dagoberto Campaneris played nine positions last September 8 for Kansas City to establish a major league record for most positions played in one contest.

Dentists Win In Colt Battle

The Dentists held off the rallying Riverview Florists for an 11-7 victory at Colt Field Friday night in the Tri-State Colt League.

The Dentists had built up a 10-4 lead by the fourth inning and then staved off a three-run uprising by Riverview in the top of the fifth.

Cunningham went 3 for 4 in the losing cause and Bartram added two hits for the Florists. John Duffy paced the Dentists with two hits.

Jeff Kidder was the winning pitcher and Cunningham suffered the loss.

Midland Post Loses 3 To 0

Beaver Falls handed visiting Midland Post 481 its first defeat in the Beaver County American Legion League Friday, 3-0, behind the one-hit pitching of B. Garvin.

Garvin, who had control trouble in walking eight, recorded 10 strikeouts.

Midland got solid six-hit pitching from R. Skerupen, who struck out two and walked the same number, but couldn't come up with the key hit.

Beaver Falls scored one run in the second and added the final two in the sixth.

Jerry Mayo paced the victors with three hits, including a triple, and scored two runs.

Bill DeHess smacked a double to spoil Garvin's no-hit bid.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) —

One of sports' biggest crowds began filling Indianapolis hostilities and side streets today, chattering about what makes Mario Andretti move so fast and whether he can do it for 500 miles Monday.

A poll of 68 auto race writers established the little Italian-born driver as the favorite, a status he already enjoyed on the basis of a record-breaking qualification at 165.899 miles an hour for the Golden Anniversary 500-mile auto race.

There were plenty of skeptics, however.

Against Andretti's 20 votes, defending champion Jimmy Clark of Scotland received 16; Dan Gurney, Californian who

Phils Crush Giants

Sadecki Battered For Fourth Time

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

When the San Francisco Giants acquired pitcher Ray Sadecki three weeks ago, Vice President Chub Feeney said: "He should help us for a long time."

Someone, however, better start helping Sadecki.

The 25-year-old left-hander was battered from the mound for the fourth straight time since coming to the Giants as the Philadelphia Phillies crushed the Giants 9-2 Friday night.

In four starts with the Giants he has lasted only 13 1-3 innings while allowing 11 runs for an astronomical 7.62 earned run average.

His latest effort ended before he could get anyone out in the fifth inning. The Phillies already had scored three runs in the first four innings, and when John Callison and Dick Groat singled in the fifth, Manager Herman Franks decided Sadecki needed help.

The Giants may need some, too. They've won only five of their last 13 games, and they must do without their No. 2 pitcher, Gaylord Perry, for the next 15 days. Perry, suffering from a sore ankle, was placed on the disabled list Friday night.

In other National League games, Los Angeles blanked New York 4-0, Pittsburgh whipped Houston 6-0, Cincinnati edged St. Louis 6-5 and Atlanta defeated Chicago 5-3.

Claude Osteen broke a personal four-game losing streak, gaining his first victory in a month with a three-hitter over the Mets. Los Angeles scored all four of its runs in the sixth inning with the help of errors by Bill Murphy, Ken Boyer and Dick Stuart.

Bob Veale and Pete Mikkelsen combined for a five-hitter against Houston. Bill Mazeroski and Willie Stargell led the Pittsburgh attack, each hitting a homer and driving in two runs.

Cincinnati's first three hits off St. Louis' Art Mahaffey were homers — two by Vada Pinson and one by Tommy Helms. Jim Maloney needed help from Billy McCool in the seventh but still gained his fifth victory without a defeat.

Atlanta outthrewed the Cubs as Hank Aaron, Joe Torre and Mack Jones connected in support of Wade Blasingame. Aaron's homer was his 16th. Billy Williams and Ron Santo homered for Chicago.

Pott Hangs Onto Lead In Oklahoma City Play

By BILL LITTLE
Associated Press Sports Writer

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — Johnny Pott, the two-day leader in the $57,000 Oklahoma City Open Golf Tournament, isn't a bit unhappy with the Oklahoma weather.

The winds that "come whistling down the plain" have been whispering a soft background melody as Pott, 30, has fashioned a four-stroke lead with an 11-under par 133 total for 36 holes over the 7,173-yard Quail Creek Golf and Country Club course.

"The weather has been beautiful," Pott said in near amazement. "There has been no wind at all, and the greens are in perfect shape."

Pott figured the touring professionals were due for a weather break because, he said, he's seen more rain this year than any tour deserves.

"Most of the time this year," Pott said, "You simply tied up and got out your umbrella and rain suit."

Until last week's Colonial National Invitational, the tour had been water-logged for three straight weeks, with postponement of rounds at New Orleans, La., and Dallas, Tex., and suspension until a later time of the Houston Classic.

One of the two men four strokes behind Pott — 23-year-old Tom Weiskopf — also was impressed by the lack of wind. Weiskopf said he was nearly blown off the tee at Quail Creek in National Open qualifying earlier this week.

With Weiskopf at 137 was Tony Lema, who was almost two strokes closer, but was also almost out of the tournament entirely.

Three golfers — Don Massen-gale, Bruce Devlin and Butch Baird — are at 140, followed by the rest of the field of 78 qualifiers ranging from 141 to 148.

Masters champion Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player, the defending National Open king, are at 143 and 146, respectively.

Putt Trailing By 7 Strokes

Harold Putt, East Liverpool's lone contender in the Ohio State scholastic golf tourney at Columbus, faced a seven-stroke deficit in his bid to gain medalist honors as he entered the second round of play today at OSU's Scarlet Course.

Frank Moss, Potter golf mentor, reported Putt had trouble with his putting in the first round and had five 3-putt greens in finishing with an 81 for a 9-way tie for 19th place.

Putt covered the first 9 in 44 and adjusted his putter well enough to return with a 37 on the back nine.

Tim Reardon of Worthington is leading the field with a 73. Upper Arlington, defending state champion, is the team leader by four strokes, with a card of 313.

Putt fired a 75 in a practice round on Thursday.

There are 114 boys representing 24 schools in the tournament.

The Animal Funeral Home in Farmingdale, L. I., is claimed by one of its undertakers, William Hanson, to be the first of its kind in the United States.

Andretti Made Favorite

way if Andretti's rebuilt Brabham-Ford, third last year, holds together.

The odds were heavy against the rookies, who included England's Graham Hill, a former world road racing champion; Jackie Stewart of Scotland, the Monaco Grand Prix winner last Sunday; and Americans Yarborough, Gary Congdon, Garden Grove, Calif.; Mel Kenyon, Davenport, Iowa; and Larry Dickson, Marietta, Ohio.

No first-time starter has won the race since George Souders of Lafayette, Ind., in 1927.

Rodger Ward, Indianapolis, is the only former winner in the field besides Clark, Foyt and Jones. He and Jones will be driving cars with supercharged Offenhauser engines, new power plants which haven't been as effective in practice as the special Fords pushing Andretti, Clark, Gurney and most of the other high ranking drivers.

The switch to rear-engine cars, started three years ago, lacked reaching 100 per cent by a single vehicle. Veteran Bobby Grim of Indianapolis made the lineup with a front engine car, but it has a new turbocharged Offenhauser which performed beautifully in the trials.

Speedway veterans expect the winner to ride behind one of the bigger, unsupercharged Ford racing engines like the one that powered Clark's Lotus last year.

The field, with 22 Fords and 11 Offys, averaged a record 160.251 m.p.h. in the trials against 153.774 last year. Clark's 1965 record for the full race was 150.686.

Driver Chuck Roeder of Indianapolis was killed in a qualifying run May 14, bringing to 57 the number of persons who have been killed at the speedway since it opened in 1909 with a series of short races. The 500 was inaugurated in 1911, with Ray Harroun, still an interested spectator at the age of 87, winning at 74.59 m.p.h.

Sox Continue Slump

Yanks, Baltimore And Indians Win

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Remember how sad the New York Yankees looked about a month ago?

They weren't hitting, they weren't fielding and they weren't winning. Then along came new Manager Ralph Houk and presto, the Yankees were winners again.

Well, a replica of the old edition showed up at Yankee Stadium Friday night. Happily for Houk, they were wearing Chicago White Sox uniforms.

The sagging Sox sank past the surging Yankees into eighth place in the American League as Mel Stottlemyre pitched a three-hitter for a 4-1 New York triumph.

It was the 10th loss in the last 12 games for Chicago, and they made it easy for New York with three errors helping the Yankees to two unearned runs.

That was all Stottlemyre needed. He set the Sox down on just three singles and retired 19 in a row at one stretch. He lost his shutout with two out in the ninth when Roy White dropped a fly ball for a two-base error.

Elsewhere in the American League Friday night, Cleveland edged slumping Minnesota 5-4, Baltimore downed Kansas City 4-2, Washington nipped Boston 5-4 and California shaded Detroit 3-2.

Rocky Colavito's ninth-inning single drove in Cleveland's winning run as the Twins dropped their seventh in the last eight.

Minnesota had tied the score at 4-4 on two runs in the eighth, with singles by Don Mincher and Zoilo Versalles the key hits.

But Max Alvis opened the ninth with a single, moved up on a sacrifice and scored on Colavito's hit as Cleveland won its fourth straight.

Andy Etchebarren drove in two runs and scored another as Baltimore downed Kansas City. Stu Miller saved the victory for Wally Bunker, who won his fourth.

Etchebarren's seventh inning single broke a 2-2 tie and put the Orioles ahead to stay. Baltimore added another run in the eighth on a passed ball with the bases loaded.

Washington rallied for two runs in the bottom of the ninth to beat the Red Sox. Bob Saverine and Don Lock delivered the run-scoring hits that wiped out a 4-3 Boston lead. Rookie George Scott had put the Red Sox ahead with a two-run homer in the eighth.

Willie Smith had a hand in all three California runs, driving home two with a double in the first inning and scoring the final one after singling in the fourth inning.

Marcellino Lopez got ninth inning help from Bob Lee to nail down the victory, his third in seven decisions.

'Preview' Set Monday By Wellsville League

The six-team Wellsville Cook, Super Foods; Lee Crook, Babe Ruth League will hold Sterling; Raymond Sirianni, three preview games Monday at Lawson's; Bill Bailey, H. a m-Hammond Park preparatory to moundsville, and Buck Swearing-launching first-half play on Tuesday.

Crowd Record Broken

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Opening night records were set in both attendance and handle when 7,478 harness racing fans wagered $257,376 on the inaugural nine-race program at Scioto Downs Friday night.

Good weather and a fast track provided the setting for the eighth opening of the track.

The attendance figure beat the old mark of 7,254 set in 1963. The former record handle for an opening night was $216,866 last year.

Second Title In Row Seen By Maryland

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Maryland's Terrapins appeared ready today to make it two straight in the windup of the IC-4-A outdoor track and field championships.

Coach Jim Kehoe's versatile band from the Atlantic Coast Conference bagged 11 qualifying berths in the opening competition Friday and was expected to score points in at least 10 of the 18 final events at Downing Stadium on Randall's Island.

Villanova's challenging Wildcats, winner of the outdoor team title seven times in the last nine years, captured eight qualifying berths. Morgan State's fleet runners grabbed nine. But neither figured to overcome the defending champions.

The experts calculated a conservative 39 points for Maryland and an optimistic 34 for Villanova, with Morgan State well out of the contention.

Maryland counted heavily on defender Frank Costello in the high jump despite a fractured big toe of his left foot: sophomore Ed Marks, the leader in the triple jump at 49-1 3/4 and second in the broad jump at 23-3 3/4 in the qualifying; and sprinter Jimmy Lee in the 100 and 220. The Terps had men in scoring position in six other events.

Villanova shot the works with Dave Patrick and Ian Hamilton going for a tough double in the mile and half-mile just 70 minutes apart. The mile was scheduled first.

Morgan State was after the 440-yard run and its fifth straight in the mile relay. Morgan qualified three-fourths of its outstanding relay quartet of Mal Brown, Howard Stanback and Herman Hawthorne for the 440 final.

Plane Blows 4 Tires

In Landing At Atlanta
ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — All four tires on the landing gear of a Delta Air Lines DC8 jet — with 102 passengers and 7 crewmen aboard — blew out Friday during what was described as a precautionary landing.

The plane had just taken off for New York, authorities said, when the pilot radioed that his cockpit instruments indicated a malfunction in the hydraulic brake system and he was returning to the Atlanta airport.

Half a dozen emergency vehicles poured foam on the underside of the plane. There were no injuries. Passengers were placed on other flights after a delay of about 3 1/2 hours.

Lynda Johnson Delays Planned Europe Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — A White House spokesman says Lynda Johnson's scheduled trip to Europe has been delayed temporarily, at least for the time being.

"Lynda wants a breather for a couple of weeks before she formalizes plans for the summer," Elizabeth Carpenter, Mrs. Johnson's press secretary, said Friday.

After her graduation June 4 from the University of Texas, President Johnson's 22-year-old daughter had planned to visit six European countries with a Washington friend.

Lynda returned to the White House Thursday after finishing her last exam.

The trip was to be a graduation present from her parents. She took a lengthy summer vacation last year in the western areas of the United States.

Ex-U.S. Aide Taken

MONTCLAIR, N.J. (AP) — Dallas S. Townsend, 77, director of alien property under President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1953 and a former assistant U.S. attorney general, died Friday.

Medics Take 3rd Straight In Loop Play

The Medics captured their third straight victory in East Liverpool Little League action Friday by outslugging Parsons Coal, 11-7.

In other games, Chester Legion topped Burbicks, 12-5, and Golden Star defeated Travelers Hotel, 7-4.

Lockhart hurled an 8 - hitter in picking up the win for Medics. Yanni was the loser.

Williams led Medics with three hits, including a triple and double. Daily chipped in with a double and two singles. Sample paced Parsons with a triple and single.

Chester Legion pounded out 9 hits to back the five-hit pitching of winning pitcher Mike Banfield and Dave Madish, who came on in relief.

Mark Goddard and Phil Lascala paced the victory with two hits each.

Losing pitcher Ron Brown hit a double to lead Burbicks. Golden Star rallied for four runs in the top of the fifth inning to overcome a 4-3 deficit in downing Travelers.

Kevin Francis hurled a 6-hitter in picking up the victory, while Mike Boughner of Travelers was touched for 10 hits and suffered the loss.

Mike Linville had three hits and Jigs Carter two in pacing Golden Star.

Rick Lockhart had two hits for Travelers.

Scientists Seek To Reduce Sweet Corn 'Fussiness'

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Scientists are trying to do something about an extra-sweet type of corn that is fussy about its neighbors.

The special variety contains extra sugar but if it is grown within 400 feet of either field corn or ordinary sweet corn, its special taste is ruined, and it turns starchy and hard.

Dr. Deran Markarian, a Michigan State University horticulturist, and other scientists are trying to develop varieties of the sweet corn that will mature at various times throughout the season.

"In this way," he explained, "growers could have this corn ready for pollination at times when pollen from no other corn was in the area."

Pentagon Trims Draft Needs For Physicians

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department has reduced by nearly one-third its special draft call for doctors.

A Pentagon spokesman said Friday the February call for 2,496 physicians beginning in July has been trimmed to 1,713 "due to a reduction in the casualty rate estimates for Southeast Asia."

The spokesman also said more doctors are volunteering for active duty than was anticipated.

People In News

NEW YORK (AP) — "Age is a state of mind," says former Postmaster General James A. Farley.

He celebrated his 78th birthday Friday and said: "I'm not disturbed by the years as they pass by."

Farley, a powerful figure in the Democratic party until he broke with the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, said he looked forward to blowing out 100 candles some day.

It took him four tries to blow out 78 candles.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A Fulbright grant for study abroad next year has been awarded to the first Negro woman to attend classes at the University of Alabama Extension Center in Birmingham.

Ruth Lewis, 32, of Birmingham, will study at the University of Adelaide in Australia. She is working toward a doctorate degree in counseling and guidance.

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — The gates lowered slowly in front and behind Fred Ansley's auto Friday.

Ansley, caught in a traffic jam, found himself stranded on a railroad track.

Down the track came a freight train at 20 m.p.h.

It struck Ansley's auto and carried it 25 feet but the motorist said he was not hurt — only shaken up a bit.

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — After a three-week stay in Walter Reed Army Medical Center former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has returned to his farm.

The former chief executive was suffering from a form of arthritis, but he was described by an aide Friday as feeling fine.

Doctors at the hospital said they are optimistic that he will be able to resume playing golf.

JUD ALLISON, a salesman at Turk Motors, is shown presenting keys for a 1966 patrol car late Friday afternoon to David Dray, St. Clair Township trustee. Other trustees, left to right, are Robert Simms and Lorain Foulks. Lester McElhane, one of three township constables who will be using the vehicle, sits behind the wheel. The patrol car, which was purchased through the police levy fund, was placed in operation immediately.

Boycott Weighed In Wounded Vets Hotel 'Rejection'

MUNDELEIN, Ill. (AP) — A threatened boycott of a Hilton hotel by veterans has arisen because a Hilton official shunted away a group of wounded veterans he feared might depress regular night-club patrons.

Andy Borg of Superior, Wis., president of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, threatened Friday to withdraw from the VFW's national convention from the New York Hilton Aug. 19-26 unless an apology is made.

Porter Parris, manager of the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago which features an ice skating show in its fashionable Boulevard Room, said Thursday he did not want a party of some 70 wounded veterans to attend the regular show because their presence might depress other patrons.

He offered to put on a special matinee for 600 veterans. Residents of Mundelein, a suburb northwest of Chicago, sponsors of the servicemen's entertainment, declined the invitation.

At a news conference Friday, Parris said he had been misquoted, then said, "I consider this a public apology," but add-

Slapper Gets Chance To See Teacher View

HONOLULU (AP)—A woman who slapped a school teacher's face was given a chance today to learn what it's like to be a teacher.

Doris Teixeira was convicted of assault and battery on a teacher she thought had punished her son.

Magistrate George Nakamura told Mrs. Teixeira she could serve as a teacher's assistant for two half-day sessions in her son's school or pay a $25 fine.

He gave her until next Friday to decide.

Ohioan Electrocuted When Crane Hits Wire

CINCINNATI (AP) — A 35-year-old New Richmond man was electrocuted Friday when a crane touched high tension wires at the same time he tried to fit a sewer pipe to the crane's hook.

Polk Eldridge was pronounced dead on the accident site in suburban Lockland, Robert Shropshire, 30, Ripley, was reported in fair condition with burns he suffered in the same accident.

Surplus Food Goes To 1,843

LISBON — The Columbian County Welfare Department distributed 22,895 pounds of food to 1,843 persons in May, Director Robert Bycroft reports.

He said the number reporting to the five distribution centers represented nearly 90 per cent of the 2,050 persons certified.

The 10-item issue included one - pound boxes of raisins, a new commodity on the surplus food list.

Next month's distribution will be made the week of June 13 on the following schedule:

Monday — East Liverpool Central Fire Station; Tuesday — East Palestine City Hall; Wednesday — Salem City Hall; Thursday — Wellsville American Legion, and Friday — Lisbon surplus food warehouse at County Welfare Building. Distribution hours are 9 a.m. until noon at all locations.

A summary of the May issue follows with weights:

Flour, 5,920; canned beef, 3,624; beans, 3,444; butter, 2,361; wheat, 1,731; powdered milk, 1,552; rice, 1,496; lard, 1,300; raisins, 921, and peanut butter, 546.

Bycroft said persons eligible for food in June are all public assistance cases, city relief, soldiers and sailors relief, aid for the aged, and all persons on surplus application.

Fill the cavities of pear halves (fresh or canned) with a mixture of cream cheese and cottage cheese; serve on salad greens.

U.N. Study Reveals World Growth Of Illegal Abortions

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP)—Despite advances in birth control methods, a study group for the United Nations Children's Fund says abortion still appears to be the most widely used means in the world today.

"Illegal abortions are increasing in many places where families feel competing pressures between large numbers of surviving children and rising aspirations for them," says the report.

Drawn up by a team headed by Prof. William M. Schmidt of the Harvard School of Public Health and by Children's Fund executive director of Henry La-bouisse, the report recommended the U.N. Fund's participation in government family planning programs.

It was submitted to the annual session of the fund's executive board in Addis Ababa.

"Illegal abortion is a source of major concern," declared the report.

"It is accompanied by a high risk of complications. The risks are especially great for the large numbers of poor who resort to self-induced abortion or who are aborted by the inept and the untrained."

The study group noted that in the United States nearly half the maternal deaths in large cities are the result of illegal abortion. Studies in Santiago, Chile, show one woman in every four has had at least one induced abortion.

"Most of these women are married, have living children and secured the abortion with the knowledge and consent of their husbands," says the report.

Australia, India, Korea, Nationalist China, Canada, the United States, and the countries of Western Europe and South America were cited as nations where illegal abortion is "practiced more or less widely."

The report says that in a number of countries legalized abortion is the leading method,

There's a RAT TIP TO PETE SIMONELLI, 1837 BENJAMIN HOOT DR., STOCKTON, CALIF.

WE'RE GOING TO THE PLEASANT ZONE OF THE PLAIN FOR A PICNIC.

YES, ON THE 12TH DAY OF OUR "14-DAY DAYLIGHT" IT IS MOST PLEASANT ON THE PLAIN.

IT'S REMARKABLE HOW AN EARTH HUMAN CAN BECOME ACCUSTOMED TO THIS LIGHT AIR.

HUMANS CAN ADAPT TO ANY CONDITIONS, DEAR.

HERE COME DIET SMITH'S PROSPECTORS. THEY SAID THEY'D DROP OVER FOR SOME GIANT ESCARGOT.

THEY'LL HAVE TO WEAR THEIR MASKS.

STEVE CANYON

COL. CANYON, I AM THE VILLAIN IN THE MULDOON PLOT...

OH-HELLO, PADRE! WHAT DO YOU MEAN?

I HELPED ARRANGE WITH MRS. MULDOON TO SPIRIT HER DAUGHTER OUT OF THE RED PRISON.

YOU WERE NOT TOLD BECAUSE IT WAS FEARED YOU WOULD TRY TO SAVE THE MOTHER, LEFT BEHIND -AND GET EVERYBODY KILLED!

PADRE, I WAS ANGRY ABOUT BEING USED AS A TOOL... BUT YOU WHO PLANNED IT WERE PROBABLY RIGHT!

BUT WHAT BROUGHT YOU TO THE DECISION?

WE SAW A PHOTO OF MRS. MULDOON!

Ziggy's grand slam gives Milford a 4-2 lead... But as he crosses the plate the skies open up!

Later Even if the rain lets up, you won't be able to play on that field, Coach! I'm calling the game!

The score reverts to the previous inning... And Milford loses 2-0.
